PRICE FIVE CENTS

ANOTHER RT. 15 DAMAGE AWARD IS ANNOUNCED

Pennsylvania's Department of Highways caused damages of $14,000 to the farm of A. J. and Ella C. Larmer, Fairfield R. 2, in Freedom Twp. in the process of constructing the new Route 15 across the farm, according to the report of an Adams County board of view.

The board, Roy D. Renner, Eugene Murren and Attorney J. Francis Yake Jr., filed the report of their findings of damages this morning at the clerk of court's office in the court house.

According to the report the construction of the new road took land from Mr. and Mrs. Larmer and damaged the remaining by change of grade and otherwise.

TESTIMONY VARIES

The board was appointed October 26, was sworn in and viewed the land on November 19 and then took testimony concerning the taking of land.

At the hearing, according to the report, Larmer estimated his farm as worth $45,000 before the taking and $20,000 afterward, a loss of $25,000.

Lee M. Hartman, Gettysburg realtor, appearing for Mr. Larmer, held the farm was worth $41,962 before the taking of land and construction of the road, and $14,081.40 afterward. He estimated the loss at $27,881.60.

B. A. Wagner, York, who appeared for the Commonwealth, said the farm was worth $33,750 before the taking and $28,000 afterwards, a loss of $5,750.

Bermudian Springs Board Votes For School Merger

The Bermudian Springs Joint School Board Monday evening voted to petition the county school board to seek state approval to merge the five districts of the jointure and elected Clay R. Snyder president to succeed Paul J. Lerew in the reorganization of the board. Paul B. Lerew was named vice president.

The decision to apply for merger action came after more than an hour's discussion by County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson and a 10-minute recess during which individual boards met separately to discuss the merger. The meeting was held in the Bermudian Springs High School.

MUST ACCEPT PLAN

Coulson told the 15 members present that "school district reorganization is here and, whether or not we like it, we will have to accept it." He pointed out that the Bermudian board will receive approximately $11,000 a year in state reimbursements until July, 1966, when all school districts in the state will be merged under the state mandate. The petition, if approved by the state, will place the issue on the local ballot in the May primaries for voter decision.

In answer to questions on the tax structure under the merger, Coulson said, "Districts would not be affected except for school purposes," and added that each district will continue to have its own tax assessor, collector, etc., except for school purposes. He emphasized that "there will be a single school tax rate for all five districts and all assets and liabilities of the individual districts will go to the merged district." He pointed out that each district will be represented by one board member and that four members-at-large will be elected by the voters to comprise a nine-member board. Present elected directors will continue through the termination of their offices until the board is down to nine members, he explained.

DIRECTORS MUST FAVOR

"Unless all directors favor a merger it cannot be properly presented to the voters," Coulson warned.

A show of hands indicated that the board was unanimously interested in applying for the merger privileges and High School Principal Amos D. Meyers was instructed to prepare a list of assets and liabilities of the districts for the January meeting.

MAY RESCIND ACTION

Coulson explained that "the board is under no obligation to go through with this plan" if it decides at the next meeting that it wants to remain a jointure until the July, 1966, deadline set by the state to merge.

He said, however, that "there are definite advantages in merging as early as July 1, 1964, in the one or two years of additional reimbursements." He said that under the present structure the district received a reimbursement of $500 per teacher unit. Under the merger it would receive $800 per teacher unit. He stressed that the petition must be in the hands of the court of common pleas for placing a referendum on the May ballot by mid-February.

Rev. Ronald G. Roemer, speaking for the York Springs board said that his board could not make a commitment in the absence of two members, but when the motion was put to vote the board accepted the proposal unanimously.

SALARY ADJUSTMENTS

In other business, the board authorized the salary adjustments of $200 each for two teachers who were hired prior to the new salary scale last September. Lloyd Wagener, art teacher, and John C. Walters, English teacher, were named.

$54,000 Found On Field Is Now Worth $49,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bundle of moldy money found last summer on the Gettysburg battlefield has a redeemable value of $49,000, the office of the U.S. Treasurer said Monday.

William T. Howell, deputy treasurer, said the money, which had a face value of $54,000, would be redeemed and a check mailed to the finder as soon as the Internal Revenue Service determines how much should be deducted for taxes.

George C. Rapport, 46, a high school teacher of Massapequa Park, N.Y., said he found the money last June 27 while touring the battlefield with his wife and two children, Eileen, 17, and Jack, 13.

Howell said it had been determined that the money was put into circulation in the late 1940's.

Report had said he will use the money to send his children to college. The income tax on $49,000 will run from $12,000 to $25,000, depending on how much other income Rapport has for the year, and other factors.

STATELINE, Calif. (AP) — Posses pushed a two-day hunt today in the snowy mountains ringing Lake Tahoe for singer Frank Sinatra Jr., reported hostage of kidnappers.

His famed father kept an around-the-clock vigil 65 miles northeast in a Reno hotel. A spokesman said FBI agents had urged him to do it.

No demand for ransom has been reported since the 19-year-old Sinatra vanished Sunday night from a motel just before he was to go on stage at a Lake Tahoe night club.

But John Foss, a band trumpet player, told officers he was with Sinatra Jr. when two gunmen burst into the motel room and that they demanded "Where's the money?" before gagging Foss and making off with the young singer.

LOCAL COURT HEARS CLAIM FOR INSURANCE

Is an insurance policy issued in Adams County a Pennsylvania contract, or an Oregon one, if the policy is issued to a person in that state?

That was one of the questions the Adams County court had before it in the assumpt action brought for Kenneth E. Spotts, Portland, Ore., by Ronald E. Spotts, his guardian, against the Bankers Mutual Insurance Co., Gettysburg R. D.

Argument in the case was heard Monday afternoon by the local court.

Attorneys were in agreement on the facts of the case: Kenneth E. Spotts wrote the Bankers Mutual here, enclosing his premium, for an insurance policy. He was sent the policy.

Spotts then was involved in an auto accident. Oregon law provides that no liability policy can be issued with a nonliability clause, such as was contained in the policy Spotts purchased. When Spotts made a claim on Bankers Mutual it referred the matter to arbitration in the manner provided. Spotts ignored the arbitration and went into Oregon court. The Oregon court found against Bankers Mutual in the sum of $8,500, the $5,000 face value of the policy plus $1,500 for attorney's fees provided by an Oregon law.

MEETS OBSTACLE

When Bankers Mutual sought to enter Oregon court to defend itself it found it had to meet certain requirements before it could move for the case to be quashed, since it had no office in Oregon and was not licensed to do business there.

When Bankers failed to pay the judgment against it in Oregon, Spotts brought suit in Adams County.

Attorney Daniel J. Ryan, Philadelphia, who with Attorney Eugene R. Hartman represents Bankers Mutual, argued:

"We are fighting a situation where we feel we are forced to provide an insurance service for which we receive no premium and forced by a foreign jurisdiction to do so. Thus we are putting up this battle. This is an effort by Oregon to change a contract made in Pennsylvania and legal here."

Attorney Ryan claimed that Oregon's laws providing certain requirements that must be met

The Gettysburg Joint School board at its December meeting Monday evening voted 105 school teachers here salary raises for the current year totaling $18,500 and made the new pay rates retroactive to the beginning of the school year.

Today it was regarded as unlikely that the new pay rate would be reflected in teachers' checks until January.

Monday evening's business also included the election of two new elementary teachers to take up their duties here after graduation from the Shippensburg State College in February. Both are to fill staff vacancies expected to occur by that time.

MORE ADJUSTMENTS COMING

The new teachers will be William G. Shoemaker III and Miss Glenda Hess, both of Gettysburg and both graduates of the Gettysburg High School. Each will begin at a salary of $4,200.

The salary action and the election of the two teachers were taken on recommendation of the Teacher and Curriculum committee presented by its chairman, Thomas O. Oyler.

Supt. H. Edgar Riegle explained to the board the recommendation on the salary increase and said: "I feel sure there will have to be further adjustments in teachers' salaries next year when under the state law the starting pay for teachers goes up to $4,500."

RESULT OF STATE ACTION

The superintendent told the directors that new state legislation will boost the beginning salary for teachers in the 1964-65 school year to $4,500 and stipulates that teachers beginning this year must be paid $4,800 next year. Almost all of the benefits of the new law are for beginning teachers. Teachers starting this year could get to the maximum in eight years while many teachers who started two or more years ago at much lower figures are not yet close to the maximum.

"This salary adjustment recommended by the committee is an attempt to give salary benefits to experienced teachers and will be largely offset by increased state appropriation under the new law."

WON'T MAKE UP NOV. 25

Asked by a director if teacher merit was considered in handing out the raises, Riegle replied that it is based on experience only and added there is no merit grading system provided by the state which allows grading teachers on such things as cooperation.

The recommendations adopted by the board on the salary matter stated that those teachers with two to five years of experience will be given an extra $100 this year; that teachers with six to 10 years of experience will be given an extra $200 this year and teachers with 11 years or more of experience will be given $300 extra this year. These sums are in addition to state-mandated increments, it was explained. The vote on the pay boost was unanimous.

After another recommendation by the teacher and curriculum committee, the board designated November 25, the day of President Kennedy's funeral, as a day of instruction although schools were closed. The day will not have to be made up.

CAFETERIA COMPLAINTS

The board granted a leave of absence to Miss A. Joan Thomas of the high school faculty so that she may take advantage of a year's fellowship for which she has applied. Names of our substitute teachers were added to the approved list. They included Patrick McDermott, John Pollock, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson and Mrs. Ann Settle.

After several directors reported complaints that the quality of the food in school cafeterias is "poor" and pupils are "being starved," Business Manager Kenneth Reinhardt invited directors to visit the cafeterias and test the food for themselves.

Cafeteria accounts showed a loss of more than $1,500 last month and that launched a discussion of cafeteria costs. It was brought out that the school has to pay several hundred dollars monthly for rental storage for surplus foods that have to be refrigerated Melvin Worley was in charge of the "scramble" for the Cubs and Dr. Tilberg was in charge of the scramble for the Boy Scouts. Santa Claus assisted in all of the programs.

Rogers announced that the district commissioners will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the West St. branch bank to make plans for a survey of all units during the coming year and also announced that all Scout leaders can obtain Boy Scout calendars for the members of their units at the branch bank Thursday night from 7 to 8. SET HEARING IN DAMAGE CASE

The Adams County court Monday afternoon set December 16 at 10 a.m. as the time for a hearing of a proposed settlement, for $3,000, of the trespass action brought by Mrs. Frances L. Brantner, Fairfield R. 1, against Paul E. Simpson, Middletown, as the result of the death June 5, 1963, of seven-year-old Thomas Anthony Brantner.

The court was told the settlement was for $3,000 plus the costs of the suit. The parents of the deceased child are Mrs. Frances L. Brantner and Paul J. Brantner, now believed to reside in Chambersburg.

The accident occurred 6½ miles west of Fairfield at 2 p.m. June 5 when, according to the news reports at that time, the Brantner child, a Second Grade student in Fairfield school, was playing "pitch and catch" with a brother, Harry, on the lawn of the Brantner home. According to police, the child missed a baseball throw into him and ran out onto the Sunshine Trail in pursuit of the ball. There he was struck by a westbound station wagon operated by Simpson. Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, said the death, from internal injuries and a broken neck, occurred two minutes after the child was struck by the car.

ARTIST TELLS

(Continued From Page 1) steps used to restore the paintings and sculptures. Those who are trained in restoration work, he said, are experts in chemistry as well as painting and sculpture. "Without a knowledge of chemistry you take a great chance of destroying the authenticity. You have to know the composition of the paint used before you can replace it."

A few flakes of dried paint on the deteriorating wooden statues showed that they had once been painted. By chemical analysis it was determined what type paint was used and its color and, as a result, when the restoration was completed by forcing plaster into the porous wood, and remaking broken part, the original color was restored.

RESTORED GARDENS

Carl also showed restoration of ancient gardens. Research into old records showed where the gardens were placed and the type of flowers planted month by month. Thus the gardens are now exactly as they were possibly 500 years ago.

Carl said after his experience in restoration of old paintings and sculptures, "when I paint for myself I make it like it will be in the year 2050."

President Rev. Robert MacAskill presided at the meeting. Frank Ruth and Dr. Kenneth Smoke were in charge of group singing.

in the U.S., public, private and parochial, on every level including college, secondary and primary were selected on the basis for their proposals on how they would use the equipment if they were to receive a grant.

The awards consisted of a $3,000 model visual communications system including 11 classroom overhead projectors, two transparency makers and transparency film and copy paper. This system enables teachers to produce transparencies from a variety of source materials such as newspaper articles, textbook materials, student homework or class assignments. These transparencies, projected before the class, enable teachers to present new facts and ideas clearly and dramatically.

14,000 APPLIED

Bert S. Cross, president of the 3M Company, said that the 500 winning schools were chosen from more than 14,000 schools in the United States that submitted proposals. He said that this is over 10 per cent of all eligible schools in the country.

He said that "as remarkable as is this response in terms of numbers of proposals, it is even more gratifying in terms of the interest in improved teaching methods that they reflect. 'We are tremendously impressed with the dedication of our teachers and their desire to accept new ideas that will help them to do a better job of teaching."

Mr. Cross cited the fact that many schools had expressed their thanks for the impetus this program provided to make them aware of vital new approaches to teaching. "Principals have referred to their discovery of new vistas and new things and have mentioned a new spirit of creativity that was sparked by their own re-evaluation of their methods of classroom presentation," he said. Mr. Cross added: "With educators like these in all the 50 states, the business of education is in very good hands indeed."

The town's Department of Recreation was given permission to use junior high school gymnasiums for their activities when not in conflict with school schedules.

When bills totaling $19,051 came up for approval, a $2,569 item for the Battlefield Earthmoving was questioned by a director who expressed the opinion that the $6,000 play area grading project should have been handled by competitive bids. The $2,569 item was part of the $6,000 total spent to put badly needed play area into usable condition. The bills were approved.

TO BUY BUS

The dishwasher in the junior high school cafeteria was reported as "antiquated, undersized and worn out" and the finance and planning committee was directed to investigate the need for its replacement.

On a finance and planning committee recommendation presented by Chairman Robert W. Weaver the board voted to buy a 1960, 60-passenger bus from Herbert Oyler for $1,800. It will be used to transport students on field trips and other occasions and to reduce the need for bus rentals for school needs. It is the first bus ever bought by the jointure.

The board gave general approval to the idea of special meetings of the whole board to talk about policy and general education matters which are usually crowded out of the monthly business session.

Ryan also asserted that Oregon had violated its own laws in regard to the notice given Bankers Mutual. The law provides that notice must be given by registered mail. No such notice was given Bankers Mutual, it was claimed.

Attorney Ronald Katzman, Harrisburg, who with Attorney Oscar F. Spicer represented Spotts, claimed that "a state has a right to protect its citizens and that is what Oregon has done in its law pertaining to out-of-state liability insurance. Twenty states have similar laws, including Pennsylvania." He quoted decisions of state and the U.S. Supreme Court which he said were similar to the case in question.

He also quoted cases in which it was held that a judgment made by another state, where that state has jurisdiction, must be upheld by other states even though the judgment would be reversed if the matter came under the laws of the other states.

which young Sinatra was appearing. There was a brief flurry of excitement Monday night when FBI agents announced they had seized six men and 18 guns 20 miles west of Lake Tahoe.

Two of the men were identified as Joseph James Sorce, 23, of El Cerrito, Calif., and Thomas Patrick Keating, 21, of Riverside, Calif., wanted for two bank robberies which netted $13,000.

BANK ROBBERS

After Sinatra Jr. vanished, officers had put out an alert, saying these two men were known to be in the area and might possibly be connected with the Sinatra case.

But arresting FBI agents said the two and their four alleged conspirators, seized in two cars on U.S. 50, were held only for the bank robberies.

Officers took Foss to view the men but he could make no positive identification.

In Reno, the worried Sinatra Sr. said:

"I've always had a fear of kidnapping, especially when the children were much younger than they are now."

"But I thought that was all past, now that they're grown up."

A spokesman in his suite said Sinatra was "sleepless, nervous, tired, worried, concerned — everything a father should be."

Sinatra's spokesman said Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy telephoned late Monday from Washington and assured the entertainer that the full resources of the Justice Department were available in the case.

Ashen-faced Sinatra Sr. flew to Reno by chartered plane from Palm Springs, Calif., in Monday's predawn hours soon after he got word about his son.

supervisor, will receive $5,200 and Mrs. Mildred J. Bucher, elementary teacher at East Berlin, will receive $4,500. The adjustments are retroactive to September.

The board also authorized Meyers to advertise for bids for three overhead projectors and two tape recorders and cases at a cost of approximately $900, and also instructed him to have a permanent incinerator constructed at the high school at a cost of "$500 or less."

At the recommendation of the personnel committee the board elected Miss Shirley Davis as a Third Grade teacher at the York Springs Elementary School at a salary of $4,500. She is presently a student teacher and will accept the position upon graduation from Shippensburg State College in February.

The board authorized the transportation committee to proceed with plans to have three shelters erected for pupils at Two Churches, Hampton and Idaville at an estimated cost of $200 each. Meyers was instructed to contact local businessmen for sponsorship of the shelters.

DELAY GRADING

George Wildasin, Abbottstown engineer, who appeared at the meeting on behalf of Walter Hamm, grading contractor whose contract was terminated by the property committee as the result of a special meeting November 9, said he was unable to estimate the amount of work Hamm should be paid for until he has consulted with the district's engineer, J. R. Hershey. Hamm's contract was terminated because "not enough work was being done for the time expended." The board agreed to delay work on the field until spring, when they will hire another contractor to finish the job.

At the special meeting Hershey estimated that the cost of Hamm's work would be approximately $1,000. John Keyser, chairman of the property committee, said that the committee would meet with the engineers in the near future and arrive at a figure of payment.

NEW MEMBERS

New members who met with the board for the first time Monday evening were Glenn Cashman, East Berlin, succeeding Paul J. Lerew; Paul Black and Clair Ditzler, Huntingtown Twp., succeeding Lloyd Keffer and William Lott; Melvin Trostle and Carl Wagner, Latimore Twp., succeeding Ross Koons and Raymond Leer, and William Lehman, York Springs, succeeding Paul Lehman.

Meyers reported that the three cafeterias had a total income for the month of $8,937.53 with a profit at the York Springs Elementary School of $54.88 and losses at the high school of $104.45 and $129.59 at the East Berlin Elementary School.

The board approved the payment of bills totaling $43,161.16. The financial statement shows a balance of $7,007.71. Meyers presented a financial summary for the first three months of operation in the amount of $173,266.97. He said that expenses will exceed the $486,440 budget for the year by approximately $20,000 because of salary adjustments mandated by the state, and the purchase of a new school bus at $6,068 which were not included in the original budget.

FIFTY YEARS AGO
Sale Report: Emory Zepp's sale in Cumberland township on Tuesday amounted to $1,120.65. The best cow brought $81. The attendance was good. Thompson was the auctioneer and C. C. Bream the clerk.

Town Merchant Taken by Death: J. Lawrence Schick, one of Gettysburg's oldest and most representative citizens, died at his home on Center Square Saturday evening after a brief illness. Had he lived until Christmas day he would have been 91 years of age. Mr. Schick was an active business man during his entire life but he found time for many other interests. He was a devoted member of the local Methodist Church and for over fifty years was its treasurer, serving in that capacity at the time of his death. He was a member of Gettysburg Lodge of Odd Fellows for almost his entire life and was one of the oldest Odd Fellows in the State. He was treasurer of the local lodge for the past forty-two years. He was one of the charter members of the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Association and served as its treasurer from 1879 to the time when its work was taken over by the National Government. In 1855 and 1856 he was treasurer of Adams County. While still a young man he engaged in a small way in the dry goods business from which he developed an extensive store, occupying the site which now houses the Dougherty and Hartley store. He continued in the dry goods and merchandise business until 1889 when he sold out to Mr. Gettler who later moved to Littlestown. Since then Mr. Schick had been more or less actively engaged in the insurance business.

Lodge Of Sorrow Held: The annual lodge of sorrow was held by Gettysburg Lodge of Elks Sunday afternoon on Walters Theater while the other lodges of the same order all over the country were holding similar services. Since the last public service of this sort in Gettysburg two members have died, Guyon H. Buehler and Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal, and the eulogy on the lives of these two men was pronounced by S. S. Neely, Esq. He called particular attention to Mr. Buehler's great heart, to his wonderful kindness to all in need or distress, whether or not his personal friends, and of the qualities that endeared him to all who knew him. In telling of Dr. O'Neal's long and successful life he spoke especially of his skill as a physician and of his personal interest in every one of his patients, whom he regarded not simply people with an illness to be cured but rather as friends to be relieved. Dr. O'Neal whenever his name was mentioned was referred to as the "dear old doctor." The general address was made by George J. Benner, Esq. who spoke of the principles of the order and called attention to the need of men today who will follow out the life that such principles should teach. The members of Gettysburg Lodge who have died since its institution are Harry Melville Sheely, Meriville E. Zinn, Norman F. Bumbaugh, Calvin P. Krise, W. Clarence Sheely, James T. Long, Guyon H. Buehler and Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal.

Elsie Singmaster has contributed to the Christmas number of "Good Housekeeping" a story based on incidents connected with the fiftieth anniversary of the battle.

Many Will Get Christmas Money: More than $23,000 will be paid out to Gettysburg people the latter part of this week and the beginning of next by the local financial institutions.

Today's Talk

LOSING ONE'S HEAD
One reason why men and women lose their heads so often is that they use them so little! Always, in an emergency, this occurs.

It is the same with everything. If we have anything that is valuable, it must be put to some sort of use. If a man's muscles are neglected, he soon has none, or rather none worth mentioning. The more the mind is used the more flexible it becomes, and the more it takes upon itself new interests.

It is a mistake that people's minds become over-worked. The more a mind is used the healthier it becomes — and the body with it, provided that that body has not been abused. Worry, not work, disables and — finally — kills.

Man must put his talents, or ability, to work for him. None of us can stand upon the sidelines for long. Life is movement, change — growth — and if we can't enter into that program, then we must be lost in the shuffle of those who learned to go forward and to adjust themselves to new conditions.

In the early days of the race, food was rough and had to be thoroughly chewed. Today most of our food is dished out to us soft and palatable — and so the making of dentures has fast become an art with a great group of constantly increasing dentists. Nonuse brings loss.

The Bible story of the talents is very impressive, because it is as applicable and true today as when first written as a parable. Even the unused talent was taken away from that one to whom it had been given.

If you have talent, and you let it take too long a nap — it may never wake up!

I like to look at hands that show use. Nothing is so unimpressive as that which shows no use whatsoever. What gifts we have to use — brains, eyes, hands, feet, buried treasures within ourselves! Someone has well said that it is better to wear out than to rust out!

Just Folks

MOTHERS

She wondered why her mother thought so much of words like "must" and "ought," and why she held so oft in view the things which proper people do, and why she gave so much advice about the art of being nice.

It seemed to her that motherhood gave too much thought to being good; somehow she could not understand.

The reason for the guiding hand; Nor could she ever quite make out Just what her mother was about.

Vaguely she sensed her mother had ideas of what is good and bad, But youth and age are seldom found Meeting upon a common ground And all that talk of being good Was speech she never understood.

The reason for it now is known, She has a baby of her own, And strangely now her every thought Is built round words like "must" and "ought."

Now off from her this phrase we hear: "I want you to be nice, my dear."

BUY AMERICA AMENDMENT IS DROPPED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House conferees have dropped a Buy-America amendment sponsored by Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., from a bill involving appropriations for the Kinzua, Pa. Dam and Reservoir.

Scott's amendment, already accepted by the Senate, would require purchase of U.S. products for work authorized by a public works bill if the items did not cost 50 per cent more than foreign-made items.

Scott said he will introduce a similar proposal to amend the Buy America Act itself. He also said he will continue to offer the amendment to all legislation authorizing money for government agencies.

LAST RITES HELD
The funeral of H. Amos Little, 80, Lincolnway West, New Oxford, who died last Thursday afternoon, was held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Feiser Funeral Home in New Oxford. The Rev. John Kugle, New Oxford Lutheran pastor, officiated. Interment was made in the New Oxford Cemetery. The pallbearers were Paul Stock, Frank Feiser, Harry Emlet, Warren Baugher, Henry Weikert and Harold Warren.

Sen. Scott, commenting on his amendment, said "there are entirely too many people out of work in this country and entirely too much U.S. gold going abroad to permit present government contract bidding conditions to exist in their present form."

PARTY ON WEDNESDAY
The annual Christmas party will be held by the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity on Wednesday, 7:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Glenview Drive. Each member is asked to take a $1 gift for exchange. The program will be in charge of the Public Affairs Department, Mrs. Luther Ritter, chairman. MUST VACATE CORYDON BY DECEMBER 31

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department says families in Corydon, Pa., who will be affected by the Allegheny River dam and reservoir must vacate their properties by Dec. 31.

In a letter to Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., Ramsey Clark, assistant attorney general in charge of the lands division, said that is the final deadline for compliance with orders to vacate to insure safety of the families.

His letter was in response to a request from the senator for a Justice Department investigation into the complaint of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Ruth who contended a government appraisal of their property was unfair.

Ramsey Clark said the Army Engineers valued the Ruth property at $7,700 and considered the Ruths' demand for $30,000 excessive.

He said a new independent appraisal is being made to "avoid any doubt as to the accuracy of present appraisals."

Ramsey Clark said a report from the U.S. attorney at Pittsburgh indicated a "very hostile attitude" on the part of the Ruths who had urged other landlords in Corydon not to settle with the government.

Their refusal to negotiate with the government, Ramsey Clark added, gives the government no choice other than to condemn the Ruth property.

PARTY ON WEDNESDAY
The annual Christmas party will be held by the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity on Wednesday, 7:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Glenview Drive. Warriors In Home Debut Against Boiling Springs Tonight In BML Contest

Tonight the Gettysburg High School dribblers make their home debut when they take on Boiling Springs in a Blue Mountain League affair. The junior varsities will clash in the preliminary at 6:45.

The Warriors got off to an impressive start last Friday by trouncing Newport 75-23 on the latter's floor in a BML game but expect to find the opposition much tougher this evening.

Gary McManus, one of six veterans on the Bubble varsity, has been the top scorer for his team in pregame as well as in the league game lost to Northern last week 40-38. He netted six goals against the Bears.

Coach Stewart Kershner, assistant coach last year at Massanutten Military Academy, also has Phil Roth, Ed Wilson, Don Herr, Jim Tanner and Bob Young as holdovers from last season.

Merrill Eckhart, Warrior mentor, will probably open with his same starting group. Bob Dietz, Dick Finkbner, Eddie Tilberg, Tony Bushey and Chris Richardson.

CANNERS AT HOME

Biglerville, beaten by East Pennsboro in its league opener, faces another toughie in Camp Hill on the Biglerville floor.

Camp Hill served notice it is to be reckoned with in the race by dumping Big Spring, last year's titlist, 41-38 in overtime.

The Lions depend greatly on the shooting of Gaylord Dissinger who hooped 21 tallies in the opener. He and Laurie Roberts are the only lettermen from last season.

In other league games Newport will be at East Pennsboro, Susquehanna at Big Spring and Northampton at Shippensburg.

BOLTS HOSTS K-D

Littlestown, loser to Biglerville a week ago in its opener, hopes to get untracked tonight when it meets Kennard-Dale on the Thunderbolts floor.

Kennard-Dale is reported to have another strong outfit and will offer a severe test to the Bolts.

Delone Catholic faces one of its toughest assignments this evening at Chambersburg.

The Squires made a brilliant start by trouncing Hanover but tonight will have to contend with much superior height of their opponents.

Bermudian Springs (1-1) plays on a foreign court for the first time in opposing Cumberland Valley.

NBA CENSURES FRANK RAMSEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Ramsey of the Boston Celtics, a self-styled master of deception, has been censured by the National Basketball Association for a by-lined magazine article in which he detailed how he lured opponents into committing fouls.

The censure was contained in a letter from league President Walter Kennedy that should be in Ramsey's morning mail.

The article by Ramsey, which was published in Sports Illustrated under the title of "Smart Moves by a Master of Deception," was accompanied by sketches illustrating the methods the former Kentucky All-American uses to draw fouls.

"I have always thought," said Kennedy, "that the mark of success of an athlete is what he can do within the confines of the rules rather than by circumventing them."

Kennedy said he had no power beyond censuring Ramsey, but "will seek legislation to give me further powers at our next meeting in Boston at the time of the All-Star Game, Jan. 14."

Lambert Trophy Awarded To Navy

NEW YORK (AP)—Navy was named today the winner of the Lambert Trophy, marking the fifth time the Middies have won or shared the award emblematic of Eastern major college football supremacy.

The Middies, who completed a 9-1 season by defeating Army 21-15 last Saturday, drew six of the first-place votes in the balloting by an eight-member Lambert board.

Pittsburgh, also 9-1, was voted the top spot on the other two ballots and finished second. Syracuse was third, Army fourth and Penn State fifth. Then came Dartmouth, Princeton, Massachusetts, Harvard and Boston College.

Navy will be presented the trophy at a dinner Thursday, when the University of Delaware will receive the Lambert Cup for Eastern small college supremacy.

Pigianni and Fabbri were at the controls of a freight train that rammed the rear of a crowded passenger train standing in a station.

TEXAS HOLDS TOP SPOT IN LAST AP POLL

By MIKE RATHET

NEW YORK (AP)—Unbeaten and untied Texas won the national collegiate football championship today in the final Associated Press poll of the 1963 season, earning the title for the first time since the Longhorns began playing the sport in 1933.

Becoming the first Southwest Conference team to win the national championship since Texas A&M in 1939, Texas swept through 10 opponents, wound up with the only unblemished record among major college teams and is scheduled to meet Navy in the Cotton Bowl, New Year's Day.

The Middies, losers only to SMU, finished second in the voting in a bid for their first national championship. Navy completed the regular season last Saturday with a 21-15 victory over Army Texas had finished its season a week before.

SOUTHERN CAL OUT

In the voting by a special AP panel of 49 sports writers and broadcasters, Texas drew 34 first-place votes and 460 points to 10 first and 418 points for Navy. Pittsburgh drew the other five first-place votes.

Rose Bowl bound Illinois, however, squeezed into the No. 3 spot with 361 points to 340 for the Panthers. Auburn was No. 5 followed in order by Nebraska, Mississippi, Alabama, Michigan State and Oklahoma.

Last year's champion, Southern California, was not among the Top Ten.

The top ten football teams with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

DIETZEL TAKES RESPONSIBILITY FOR ARMY LOSS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Paul Dietzel was hired away from Louisiana State by Army for one reason — to beat Navy. The person to blame for the fact that he didn't, says Paul Dietzel, is Paul Dietzel.

Dietzel blames himself for Army's failure to get off that last crucial play against Navy in their tense game Saturday, and has exonerated referee Barney Finn.

"The official did exactly the right thing," Dietzel said Monday. "I have no fault to find with him. If anybody is to blame it is me. I was not fully aware of the rules."

MISSSED FINAL EFFORT

"But I still feel we should have had the opportunity to put the ball in play that last time. I don't know whether we would have scored, but..."

He let the sentence trail off, just as the clock ticked off the last seconds against Army in the frantic finish at Philadelphia.

The Cadets were camped on the Navy two in a bedlam of noise, but quarterback Carl Stichweh was unable to get off the possibly decisive play before time expired.

Alabama will be lacking the services of Joe Namath — one of the finest quarterbacks in the Southeastern Conference — when the Crimson Tide takes on Mississippi in the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl game.

Namath became the third major college football player of the season to leave his team under less than favorable circumstances when he was suspended Monday.

"Namath has been suspended from the team for the rest of the season, including the Sugar Bowl game, for an infraction of training rules this past weekend," Coach Bear Bryant said.

STAYS IN SCHOOL

Bryant did not elaborate on the infraction, but said the junior quarterback "has indicated to me that he will remain in school and concentrate on his studies. He will be allowed to remain on scholarship."

Earlier in the season, hard-running halfback Joe Don Looney was dismissed from the Oklahoma team for disciplinary reasons and Georgia Tech end Ted Davis removed himself from the team following a kicking incident during a game to save the team embarrassment.

BISONS HERE ON THURSDAY

The winter sports schedule at Gettysburg College moves into its second week with all three varsity and two Freshman teams set for action.

The Bullets cagers will journey to Annapolis, Md., Wednesday afternoon to meet the Naval Academy, Coach Bob Hulton's squad will then make its first home appearance of the year Thursday evening by taking on a strong Bucknell outfit. The Bullet yearlings will meet the respective Freshman teams on both days.

Coach "Spring" Gardner's wrestling, after winning their first match of the year last week at Juniata, will tangle with Delaware Tuesday afternoon at Delaware. The grapplers will also perform for the first time at home when they meet Bucknell Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Again the Freshman will tangle in the preliminary bouts on both days.

The Gettysburg swimming team will take on its second straight opponent in the home tank when it goes after American University in a 2:30 clash on Saturday afternoon.

Will Form Cage League Thursday

The organizational meeting of the Community Basketball League, sponsored by the Recreation Dept., will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the recreation office in the Gettysburg Junior High School building.

Teams wishing to enter must have a representative present at the meeting. League rules will be explained and each team will be expected to turn in its roster.

Games will be played Monday and Thursday on the Junior High floor. The opening games are scheduled for January 6.

THIRD PERIOD PROVES FATAL

A disastrous third period sent the Fairfield High School cagers down to their second straight loss as the Knights bowed to York Country Day School 66-54 Friday evening at Fairfield.

At the end of the first half Fairfield trailed only 33-32 but in the third quarter the Knights managed but seven points while the visiting Greyhounds poured through 19 to take a big lead which they maintained until the finish.

Marty Chronister and Mike Wyatt bore the brunt of the Fairfield offense with 21 and 13 points.

The Fairfield reserves evened their record at 1-1 by winning the preliminary 41-30.

ZANZIBAR FREE FROM BRITAIN

By ADRIAN PORTER

ZANZIBAR (AP) — A gold, green and red banner replaced the Union Jack today as the sleepy spice island of Zanzibar became Africa's 34th independent nation.

Amid volleys of rifle fire and the cheers of thousands, Britain's Prince Philip, representing his wife, Queen Elizabeth II, handed over an act of the British Parliament making Zanzibar a free and independent state again after 73 years under British protection.

Prime Minister Sheikh Shante Hamadi warned his people independence "does not mean disintegration of loot... nor does it mean less work and more pay. It means unleashing the pent-

Baylor Chalks Up 29 Points In Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Elgin Baylor's got two aching knees and a sprained ankle but there's nothing wrong with his shooting eye.

The Los Angeles Lakers' ace proved that Monday when he collected 29 points in LA's 134-120 thrashing of Baltimore in the National Basketball Association's only game of the night.

The game, played in Seattle, provided a showcase for Baylor who was performing in the city where he earned All-America honors as a collegian. The 6-5 star made the most of it.

CASINELLI OF MEMPHIS STATE TAKES HONORS

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave (Bull) Casinelli of Memphis State has broken New Mexico State's hold on the college rushing title and given the unbeaten Tigers their first individual major college football champion in its history.

Trailing in third place, Casinelli gained 210 yards in his final game of the season and vaulted into the rushing championship with 1,016 yards gained according to NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today.

Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle, in first while Casinelli was trailing, picked up 171 in his final two games in a bid to become the first signal-caller to win the title, but fell 10 yards short of Casinelli's total. Gale Sayers of Kansas was third with 917 yards.

New Mexico State failed to get a player in the top 10 after winning the title for four consecutive years with Pervis Atkins, Bob Galters and Jim (Preacher) Pilot the last two years. Pilot gained only 446 yards this season.

Such an effort will be needed if Zanzibar is to raise its annual per capita income of $56.

Kenya Independent

Britain will grant independence Thursday to another East African territory, Kenya. Both will become members of the United Nations Monday.

Only 22 miles off Tanganyika on the African mainland, Zanzibar lies in the Indian ocean and once was the bustling outpost of the Arab slave trade. Now it is chiefly known as the world's leading producer of cloves.

With its sister island of Pemba to the north, Zanzibar has an area of 1,020 square miles and a population of 300,000 Africans, Arabs and Indians.

Russ Philip's arrival touched off a wave of celebrations. At least 40,000 persons crowded into the sports arena for the independence ceremony.

Santa and the Haunted House

By LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: The storyteller told how Nog was making a Trouble Cake for Santa. Then the Storyteller fell asleep. The children set off for the Haunted House to see for themselves if the story were true.

CHAPTER SEVEN

THREE LITTLE HAUNTS

What the children saw in the Haunted house was a purple-faced, toothless, bald-headed, bottle-shaped creature and what they heard was the beating of a wooden spoon in a mixing bowl.

They knew right way that the purple-faced, toothless, bald-headed, bottle-shaped creature was Nog and what Nog was beating up in the mixing bowl was a Trouble Cake for Santa Claus.

There was a candle on the table and by its flickering light the children saw all the ingredients of the cake as old Nog took them up and threw them in the bowl.

There was a bottle of spiders' legs, a box of powered stinging nettles, a dozen cobra eggs. There were little piles of sifted Hate and Greed and Worry measured out on wax paper. There was a tablespoon of mashed jelly fish and a jar of Headaches.

Muttering to himself, Nog beat up the awful mixture. At the end he dumped in a can of sugar to disguise the taste. Then he popped the whole thing into the oven.

Only then did the children, standing frozen in the doorway, come to their senses. Without a sound they turned as one, leaped off the porch and ran as fast as their legs could carry them all the way home.

"He's really there!" they cried, bursting into the house. "It's not a story! Nog is there!"

But the house was dark and the fire was out and the Storyteller was gone. They ran through all the rooms of the house calling for him.

They looked in the closets and under the beds and down the road. The Storyteller was gone and his suitcases filled with books were gone. The only sign that he'd ever been there at all was the cushion on the floor where he'd sat before the fire while he told his story.

The children looked at each other in dismay. Miss Jo pulled on Jeremy's arm. "Is old bad Nog going to send that terrible cake to Santa Claus?"

"Of course he is!" exclaimed Sissy. "That's what the story said and everything in the story

Nog beat up the awful mixture.

is true!"

Miss Jo began to cry and Sissy said, "Oh, Jeremy, what will we do?"

All this time Jeremy had been thinking. Now he said, "We could scare Nog out of the house."

"Oh, I couldn't go back there! It's HAUNTED!"

"But we could be the haunts," said Jeremy. "We could dress up like ghosts and go down there and scare Nog away."

"Like Halloween!" cried Miss Jo. She ran into her room and came back with a sheet over her head, waving her arms and crying, "Whoooo . . . Whoooo . . ."

Jeremy and Sissy raced for sheets and the three of them tore out of the house, the sheets flying out behind them. It was dark now. The roads were empty. There was no one to see or wonder at three little ghosts stealing through the town.

When they came to the Haunted House they stood outside holding hands. Jeremy put away the flashlight he had used to guide them. There was not a light in the house and the only sound was their own scared breathing.

They pulled themselves up on the porch and peeped through the door. There was no sign of Nog.

"Now!" whispered Jeremy. The three ghosts burst into the house, screeching and howling and waving their sheeted arms like three demented haunts.

If any other haunt had been there it surely would have been frightened away. But apparently the house was empty. Jeremy turned on his flashlight and peered about, growing braver all the while.

Not only was there no Nog. There was no sign of the cake he had been making.

Then Sissy leaned over and opened the oven door. Swoosh! A towering white phantom burst from the oven, went "Wheee . . ." and, spreading immense arms, floated over the children.

Soaring Stock Market Is Top Business News Of '63

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Business news got a big quota of front-page headlines this year: stock market chills and fevers and investigations, tax-cut talk, labor strife, stock splits. Here, in just one man's opinion, are the 10 top business stories of 1963.

1. STOCK MARKET Prices rose to record highs in the fall as recession fears faded and then to still higher levels in December. The Federal Reserve's raising of the margin rate to 70 per cent cash from 50 per cent may have given some speculators pause but didn't dampen general enthusiasm.

2. TAX CUTS Hopes for a cut in federal tax rates on 1963 income of individuals and corporations were high in January but by midyear had switched to 1964 incomes. Reform proposals were sidetracked. And the tax-cut bill still languished in the Senate toward year's end. Reaction to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy revived hopes of passage early in 1964.

3. BUSINESS AND GOVERNMENT By any but a strictly economic yardstick the biggest story of the year was the changing of the guard. But the economic effects, if any, of President Johnson's accession lay mostly in 1964. For industry and trade it raised the question of a new climate for business. This climaxed a year in which the Kennedy administration had striven to assure business of its good will. The changeover left many uncertainties, but business planning for the future, even if temporarily hesitant, seemed confident.

4. INTERNAL REVENUE A crackdown on expense accounts caused a furor in the spring and saddened many recipients of such spending, such as night spots. But by the end of the year many business houses and individuals had adjusted to the new rules.

5. LABOR Unemployment remained at the top of the problem list, eased a trifle but unresolved. Many union leaders asked for the 35-hour week and higher pay for overtime as possible solutions. The rail dispute over featherbedding went to compulsory arbitration, raising fears the government might move similarly in other labor strife.

6. PROFITS - DIVIDENDS Stockholders were delighted by the action of the directors of Chrysler, A.T.&T., General Motors, Pan Am, RCA and others, in splitting stocks, raising dividends, or both. Profits as a whole rose to new highs, and so did dividend payments.

7. GOLD AND THE DOLLAR An unannounced pact among the U.S. Treasury, the Federal Reserve and the central banks of protect currencies and reserves kept the U.S. gold loss to a minimum in 1963, even though the balance-of-payments deficit soared in the second quarter before falling in the third. Soviet sales of gold to finance its wheat-buying deals helped inadvertently.

8. ECONOMIC GROWTH After a hesitant summer, industrial production, retail sales, personal income, employment, auto production, and the gross national product rose to record highs, outstripping earlier predictions.

9. FOREIGN TURMOIL Both chickens and French President Charles de Gaulle ruffled feathers. The European Common Market raised the tariff on American poultry sharply, and the United States retaliated at the end of the year by penalizing French brandy. German trucks and Dutch potato starch. This embarrassed a general drive for freer trade, coming up next year in a 53-nation parley. De Gaulle in January upset American hopes that Britain would move into the Common Market, with a transatlantic accord to follow.

10. INFLATION The cost of living rose to new highs in the fall, but the increase was gradual. Price rises were announced for steel, aluminum and other metals. Wages went up, too, but more slowly than in former years.

Plan Mass Funeral For Crash Victims

MIDLAND CITY, Ala. (AP) — Mass funeral rites were held on Monday for 11 members of a Midland City family killed in a car-train crash Saturday.

Only one occupant of an old station wagon which pulled in front of a freight train survived — 1-year-old Margaret Ann Langford.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford, two sons and a daughter, six grandchildren and two daughters-in-law. Witnesses said the station wagon apparently stalled on the tracks and was struck broadside by an Atlantic Coast Line freight train.

U.S. TIGHTENS SECURITY FOR MR. JOHNSON

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the tightest security nets ever wrapped around a president greeted Lyndon B. Johnson Sunday in his first trip from Washington as chief executive.

About 5,000 policemen, detectives and Secret Service agents were deployed along the route that took Johnson from Idlewild Airport to the funeral of former New York Gov. Herbert H. Lehman and then to the Waldorf-Astoria Towers for a call on ex-President Herbert Hoover.

Not until Johnson reached Temple Emanu-El for the Lehman funeral did the Secret Service, on a half-hour's notice, inform New York police that the President would visit the ailing Hoover.

Johnson, the nation's 36th president, thanked Hoover, the 31st, for a message that latter had sent when Johnson assumed the office after the assassination of President Kennedy on Nov. 22.

Hoover, a Republican, had messaged he was ready to help the new Democratic President "in any way I can," but he noted there was not much he could do at his age — 89.

In light of the Kennedy assassination, every conceivable precaution was taken to insure Johnson's safety during his 2-hour and 20-minute stay in New York.

FORM PHALANX Thirty-five blue-helmeted motorcycle policemen formed a phalanx around the President's closed limousine in the 15-mile trip from the airport to the temple. Thousands of policemen and detectives were deployed along that unannounced route, some manning rooftops.

Secret Service agents with two submachine guns rode in an open car immediately behind the President's. Two police helicopters patrolled overhead. Officers gazed suspiciously at open apartment windows, and the occupants inside shut them hastily at times.

SCREEN MOURNERS At Temple Emanu-El, the largest Jewish house of worship in the world, 2,200 mourners and visitors were screened. Pockets were inspected. Cameras were prohibited. A bundle of newspapers was required to be left outside.

GOP Woman Will Get State Post

HARRISBURG (AP) — Mrs. Ruth Glenn Pennell, vice chairman of The Republican State Committee, is in line for a high-paying post on The State Tax Equalization Board.

A spokesman for Gov. Scranton's office said Sunday that Mrs. Pennell's appointment to the three-member agency is expected to be announced officially later this week.

The chairman of the board receives $14,000 annually, the two members, $13,000 each.

It was not known whether Mrs. Pennell, a resident of Mifflintown in Juniata County, would resign her non-salaried state committee post.

1 KILLED, 7 HURT IN CRASH

CLINTON, N. J. (AP) — An elderly woman died and five other persons were injured when a car carrying seven members of a Pennsylvania family crashed into a tractor-trailer Sunday night.

The accident occurred in a rain on Route 22, just west of this Hunterdon County community.

The dead woman was Mrs. Mary Newshafter, between 70 and 75, of (R. 2) White Haven, Pa.

The car was operated by her son-in-law, Frederick Maso, 35, of Freehold, Pa.

Maso was admitted to Warren Hospital, Philipsburg, in fair condition. His wife, Vera, 33, was in serious condition with a wrist fracture and a crushed upper left arm.

Their daughter, Carol, 10, was critical with a skull fracture.

Another daughter, Donna, 11, had head bruises and was in satisfactory condition.

A son, Daniel Maso, was not injured.

The seventh car passenger was George Newshafter, 48, son of the dead woman who lived at the same address. He was treated for abrasions and released.

Police said the Maso car crashed into the left rear of a tractor-trailer operated by Peter Serman, 53, of Kansas City, Mo., who was making a turn at the intersection of Route 22 and the Norton-Jutland Road.

Airliner Skids Off Runway

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A United Air Lines plane with 50 persons aboard skidded into a field while completing a landing Sunday night at Greater Buffalo International Airport. No one was injured.

A spokesman for United said he did not know why the four-engine turboprop plane left the runway. It was not damaged, he said.

The craft, carrying 46 passengers and a crew of four, had flown here from Philadelphia.

B. HACKETT IS SHAKEN UP BY HUNGARY TRIP

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — From the halls of Budapest to the shores of Malibu — that's the latest screen odyssey of the once-rotund comic Buddy Hackett.

Three weeks ago Hackett, lately a compact 180 pounds after a high of 244 was filming a unique coproduction of Cinéma and Hungary's nationalized movie studio.

This week he was working at the ocean in the completely capitalized "Muscle Beach Party," a follow-up to the successful "Beach Party."

NUMBED BY VISIT Buddy finds himself in the uncomfortable position for a comedian of having to be funny when he doesn't feel like being funny. That's what the experience in Hungary did to him. Usually he comes out of a new experience with a routine for his night club act.

"Not only did I not get any routine in Hungary," he shrugged, "I can't do my old ones! It will take me some time to get back in form."

Buddy seemed numbed by his 14 weeks in Hungary.

BECAME NATIONAL HERO

"I don't know what to say about it; I would need three hours to explain myself," he said. "Not only that; I've got to be careful what I say. If I say I loved the Hungarian people—which I did — I'll be called a Communist sympathizer. If I say I hated being in Hungary—which I did — I'll be called a troublemaker."

He went to Hungary to make "Millie Goes to Budapest," in which he and George Sanders play a pair of thieves out to steal national treasures. The reception by Hungarian officials was nil, said Buddy, but the people themselves — that was another matter.

"I became almost a national hero," the comedian said. "That's because I was the only visitor who tried to learn their language. Everywhere I went I talked to people and tried to make them laugh. I would tell them in their own language: 'The Hungarian people are all heart'—and they are."

"TERRIBLY DEPRESSING"

"But I couldn't get over the miserable way they had to live. It was terribly depressing, yet I suppose it could be worse. My wife went to Rumania and she said it was like a prison camp."

The food in Hungary? "After I changed hotels, I never had a bad meal. They have all kinds of goulash and wonderful fish and a fish soup that I loved. It was so hot it made my mother's horseradish taste like sour cream."

SALARIES ARE SAME

The first six weeks of filming were wasted, he said, because of foul-ups with a British company which was also coproducing. The British pulled out, and then production moved more smoothly under the direction of Richard Thorpe, a speed-minded MGM veteran.

The studio was built by Alexander Korda in 1928, and Buddy

Served 43 Years In Prison And Dies

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — Antonio Ditardo, who lived in San Quentin Prison for 43 years and repeatedly turned down offers of parole, died in his sleep Sunday.

The native of Italy would have been 89 Jan. 17. Ditardo had served more time in the prison than any other man now there.

Ditardo was convicted of killing his wife in San Jose, Calif., Feb. 13, 1920, after a quarrel about money. Two months later, he began a life term, rejected by friends and family.

He was offered parole starting in 1945, but always turned it down. "Why I want to go out? I just want to stay here until the Big Boss calls," he told authorities.

Firemen Locate Wet Burglars

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Rose Mancini summoned firemen Sunday when water began pouring through the ceiling of her grocery and apartment in downtown Syracuse.

Firemen and police went to an unoccupied apartment on the second floor.

There, police said, they found Sam Gary, 35, and Robert L. Chapman, 38, both of Syracuse, trying with wrenches to remove the kitchen sink. The men were jailed on third-degree burglary charges.

THAILAND'S PREMIER DIES; FRIEND OF U.S.

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Another staunch friend of the West held Thailand's government reins today following the death of Premier Sarit Thanarat.

The 55-year-old premier, one of America's closest friends in southeast Asia, died Sunday after a long illness. The Cabinet nominated Gen. Thanom Kittikachorn, the 52-year-old deputy premier and defense minister, to succeed him and King Bhumibol Adulyadej appointed Thanom premier today.

With an eye on Communists who have been active in northeast Thailand, Interior Minister Praphas Charusathien warned the national police and provincial governors to be alert against "subversives who could be active with the death of the premier."

Premier Thanom also ordered the armed forces to remain at their posts, on guard against any attempt to create disorder.

A medical bulletin said Sarit died of kidney and heart complications following aggravation of chronic liver trouble. He became ill Nov. 11 and the U.S. Army surgeon-general Lt. Gen. Leonard Heaton, had been attending him since his condition worsened Nov. 28.

An Army man since the age of 20, Sarit in 1947 joined in the coup that returned Field Marshal P. Pibulsonggram to the premiership. Ten years later, following the normal pattern for Thai politics, he led a coup that ousted Pibul and exiled him to Japan.

Shortly after Sarit's cirrhotic liver sent him to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, Thanom, also an army career officer, headed the government in his absence.

Florida and England, friction developed in the ruling army group he left behind. In October 1958, Sarit hurried home, proclaimed martial law, suspended the constitution dissolved the National Assembly and resumed active control of the government.

He had maintained that control ever since, pursuing a policy of militant anticommunism close ties with the United States and economic development of the country to counter communism's attractions. Thanom, although he initially disliked politics, was the premier's right-hand man throughout.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. McCormack, 71-year-old speaker of the House, has just about put the finish on any chance of making it impossible for him to move up the the presidency.

If President Johnson should die then, under present law, next in line to succeed him are McCormack of Massachusetts and 86-year-old Carl Hayden of Arizona, president pro tempore of the Senate. Both are Democrats.

In American history there have been only three laws controlling succession to the presidency: The first in 1792, the next in 1886, the last in 1947.

CHANGED IN '86

The founding fathers, when they put the Constitution together, ducked the problem of saying who should assume the powers of the presidency if the president and vice president died. They left it to Congress.

Congress passed its first act in this field in 1792. It put the Senate's president pro tempore and the speaker of the House next in succession behind the vice president.

It stayed that way undisturbed until President Garfield's assassination in 1881. At the time he was shot, it happened that the House had not chosen a speaker and the Senate had no president pro tempore. For five years there was discussion and debate.

Then in 1886 Congress changed the law, eliminating the two congressional officers and putting the president's Cabinet in line of succession, starting with the secretary of state.

TRUMAN URGED CHANGE

Another 59 years passed and in April 1945, President Franklin D. Roosevelt died. Vice President Harry S. Truman became president. If Truman had died then, under the 1886 law, his successor would have been Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius Jr.

On June 19, 1945, eight days before he accepted Stettinius' resignation, Truman asked Congress to change the 1886 law. He wanted the Cabinet taken out of direct line of succession.

He argued that under the 1886 law a president, since he picks his own Cabinet, could name his own successor. "I do not believe," he said, "that in a democracy this power should rest with the chief executive."

MORE DEMOCRATIC

He said he thought that, as far as possible, the office of president should be filled by an elected officer, not an appointed one. So he asked Congress to abolish the 1886 act and return to the 1792 act, but with a switch.

Instead of making the Senate's president pro tempore next in line, Truman said the speaker of the House should come behind the vice president and then the Senate's president pro tempore.

Truman said he considered this more democratic because the speaker of the House and all House members have to be elected every two years while senators face the voters only every six. Not everyone agreed with him.

For instance: Edward S. Cowin, the constitutional authority, wrote: "The caliber of our speakers, in the main, has been somewhat below what the presidency requires and deserves. If speakers are compared with our secretaries of state, the result is decidedly in favor of the secretaries."

IRONIC TWIST

There was some irony in what followed. Truman had made his request to a Congress run by his own Democrats. They ignored him. He didn't get action until the Republicans took control of Congress in 1947.

They changed the law, making it a kind of combination of the 1886 and 1792 laws, for this was the result, still in effect:

Next in line behind the vice president are the speaker of the House, the Senate's president pro tempore, and the Cabinet, starting with the secretary of state.

PARTY PROBLEMS

This was doubly ironic, for when the Republicans passed this act, two Republicans were in line of succession to Democratic Truman if he died, since there was no vice president then: Speaker of the House Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts and Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, president pro tempore of the Senate.

On Nov. 27 the nation got a close-up glimpse of the two elderly men — McCormack and Hayden—who are in the line of

TWO BRITISH SCIENTISTS DIE IN CRASH

TYRONE, Pa. (AP) — Authorities today are probing the wreckage of a chartered light plane near State College Airport which carried two British naval scientists and a pilot to their deaths.

Killed late Sunday afternoon were the pilot, Mark Riquette, 32, of nearby State College, Pa.; and the two scientists, J. Henry Mole of London and I. Alexander Gatenby of Plymouth.

A faculty member of Pennsylvania State University, which is located in State College about 20 miles east of Tyrone, said the scientists were enroute from Washington, D. C., to the university.

IN HEAVY SNOW

State police said the single-engine Cessna was bound from Washington to State College when it crashed at the top of a series of mountains some five miles from the airport during a heavy snowfall.

The plane was owned by the Altoona Aviation Co., Altoona, Pa. A company associate, Edward Anderson, said the plane

Cormack and Hayden were sitting right behind him.

In the past week there was increased discussion about the presidential succession. And former President Eisenhower, writing in the Saturday Evening Post, suggested the 1947 law be changed back to the 1886 law.

NO QUICK CHANGE

In short, he thinks the secretary of state and the other Cabinet members should be directly behind the vice president, not the two congressional officers.

But over the weekend McCormack said he favors the present law "not because I'm in it but because I feel it's the best way of solving the problem."

In view of this statement Congress isn't likely to change the law to eliminate McCormack and Hayden, particularly the House and particularly McCormack.

He's been a member of the House 35 years. The Democrats who run the House elected him speaker. They're not likely to do anything which might be considered an affront to him.

"TRUTH" SHOW EDITED AFTER DEATH OF JFK

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—"To Tell the Truth," CBS's Monday night guessing game is a pleasant, well-placed, early evening program.

At our house, we watch it with our after dinner coffee finding it amusing to guess with the panel which contestant is the real skin diver bear wrestler or whatever.

Monday night's show was about par for the series, which will soon start its eighth season on the network. Tom Poston, Peggy Cass, Orson Bean and Kitty Carlisle were bright and good-humored if not always too shrewd in their attempts to spot the real inventor of the wobble board, the real Japanese flower arranger and the real designer of Thanksgiving Day parade balloons.

The show had been taped Nov. 20 for broadcast the following Monday, but that was the day of President Kennedy's funeral, and it underwent some minor surgery.

A light-hearted exchange between Poston and a contestant who said her name was Casablanca revolved about its translation as "white house." Producer Gil Fates thought it would be in better taste to remove the reference.

SPECIAL ON GLEASON

CBS will pre-empt the Jackie Gleason show of Saturday, Jan. 4—for an hour-long special tribute to the entertainer for his 35 years in show business.

The program, "The Many Worlds of Jackie Gleason" will have producer Otto Preminger as host and Art Carney as a special guest. There will be taped and filmed highlights from his career.

Jack Benny and Bing Crosby will take over Friday night's NBC Bob Hope comedy special while the comedian recuperates from treatment for an eye condition. Crosby will also present the first edition of "The Hollywood Palace" Jan. 4, replacement for the "Jerry Lewis Show." There will be a different master of ceremonies each week thereafter.

Man Acquitted In Assault Case

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A Camden County jury has acquitted Fred D. Lambert, 26, of Williamstown of a charge he raped an applicant he interviewed for a job with his former firm.

The jury was out three hours before handing up its decision Monday to Judge Louis L. Goldman.

Lambert was formerly a personnel interviewer at the Bridesburg plant of the Rohm & Haas Co. The prosecution accused him of driving an 18-year-old blonde applicant to New Jersey on the pretext that jobs were available in a nonexistent plant at Berlin. The girl charged that Lambert pulled a penknife, tied her hands and then raped her on a side road off Route 73 July 30, 1962.

Judge Okays Nude Posing In Street

NEW YORK (AP)—A judge says there's nothing disturbing about a nude posing in the middle of a deserted Manhattan street on a quiet Sunday afternoon.

The court decision was handed down Monday in the case of the People vs. Jan Tice.

Miss Tice, 27, a model, took off her clothes Nov. 10 on Liberty Street in the financial district to pose for a photographer taking pictures for a book. A policeman happened by and arrested her.

Criminal Court Judge Richard F. Daly acquitted her, saying a breach of the peace requires the presence of the public and there weren't any people there.

There Were No Survivors

Shattered and splintered wreckage is all that's left of a jet airliner which fell in flames near Elkton, Md., killing 73 passengers and eight crew members late Sunday. Debris fell on house, upper left, where Mrs. Mae Grant and other members of her family said they saw the explosion. They said also they were showered with pieces of the plane when they went out of the house to investigate. They were not hurt. The airliner was bound for Philadelphia from San Juan, P. R. Bury Early Navy Airman Wednesday

LONGMEADOW, Mass. (AP)—Shine S. Halliburton, 77, one of the Navy's early airmen and a survivor of two dirigible crashes, will be buried Wednesday at Arlington National Cemetery.

Halliburton died Monday almost a quarter century after his retirement as a warrant officer in 1931.

He was one of five survivors of the wreck of the dirigible R38 at Hull, England, in 1921. He also survived the crash of the Shenandoah in Ohio in 1925.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam plans to send an emissary to Cambodia to explore possibilities of restoring diplomatic relations between the two countries, it was learned today.

ADMITS FALSE HOLDUP TALE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Thomas Cunningham, 20, a clerk at the Singing Waters Restaurant, told police Monday he was beaten in the face, knocked unconscious and robbed of $4.00.

Doctors at Graduate Hospital however, said they could find no apparent injury. Sgt. James McBride reported. Police pressed their questioning of Cunningham.

McBride said Cunningham, of East Lansdowne, after hours of questioning, admitted the holdup story was false and said he took the money and gave it to two friends, who were visiting him.

Cunningham and the friends, both sailors, Ernest Suddarth, 20, of South Bend, Ind., and Raymond Hoyth, 20, of Utica, N.Y., were charged with burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods. Police said the two sailors were absent without leave from Norfolk, Va.

Cunningham told police he met Suddarth and Hoyth while serving in the Navy.

Today In Washington

Cambodia Broadcast: U.S. officials, expressing shock and outrage, sought to verify reports that Cambodia's government-controlled radio had called for a celebration of the deaths of Thailand's premier and President John F. Kennedy.

A State Department spokesman said a Cambodian broadcast had been heard apparently rejoicing at the death of state "enemies" in Thailand and in South Viet Nam, along with "the great boss of these aggressors"—taken here as a slurring reference to Kennedy's assassination, Nov. 22.

Coffee: Informed sources said today the U.S.-sponsored international coffee agreement appears in danger of dying for lack of U.S. congressional approval of legislation to make it operative in this country.

The agreement hailed as a plan to save coffee-producing countries from economic chaos, provides that importing and exporting nations must ratify it by Dec. 31 to make it effective. Congress is planning to recess for the Christmas holidays Dec. 22.

The agreement cannot be operative without U.S. participation.

Kidnaping: State Department officials portray the seizure of four Americans in Bolivia as more of an accident than an anti-American act.

They said Monday they believed the Americans just happened to be in the mine area when left-wing tin miners got word two of their leaders had been seized by the government.

FEARS MOUNT FOR SAFETY OF 4 AMERICANS

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)—Fears mounted today for the safety of four Americans and 17 others held hostage by Communist-led Bolivian tin miners as a 24-hour deadline neared.

The miners warned the government to release two jailed Communist union leaders by today or "suffer the consequences." But the government gave no indication it would release the union leaders.

The ultimatum did not spell out what the consequences might be, but observers recalled a similar crisis in 1949 when miners seized four American engineers held them hostage briefly, then killed them.

RAY OF HOPE

One hopeful aspect was a report that Vice President Juan Lechin, leftist leader of the rebellious miners had had friendly relations with one of the Americans, Thomas Martin, 27, of New York a U.S. Information Agency officer.

In a radio-telephone talk with the U.S. Embassy at La Paz, the Bolivian capital Martin said Sunday he and the other hostages were well.

The captives include three Canadian technicians, a Dutch mine manager, a West German and a dozen Bolivian technicians. They have been held since Friday at Catavi, a mining center 155 miles southeast of La Paz.

DEMAND RELEASE

In addition to Martin, the Americans are U.S. information officer Michael A. Kristula, Cadillac, Mich. U.S. labor officer Bernard Rifkin, 52, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Peace Corps volunteer Robert Fergerstrom, whose parents live in Honolulu.

They had gone to the mining area to deliver a $15,000 U.S. aid check to be used for a school and an orphanage.

In exchange for the hostages, the miners demanded release of union leaders, Irineo Pimental and Frederic Escobar. The government said they were arrested on a court order on charges of committing nonpolitical or common crimes. No details were given.

SEARCH FIELD FOR BODIES IN PLANE CRASH

ELKTON, Md. (AP)—The tragedy of Clipper 214 moved today into a mop-up search of a cornfield and the opening of a makeshift metal box.

In the field just north of Elkton still lay scattered pieces of wreckage and some of the remains of 81 persons who perished Sunday night in the explosion and fiery crash of a Pan American World Airways jet plane.

In the box was the flight recorder carried by the four-engine Boeing 707 on its last ride.

Officials faintly hoped it might yield some clue to the cause of the disaster, one of the worst in the history of civil aviation. But they said the recorder, about the size of a box camera, was so badly battered that its story might be lost.

FIND RECORDER

The recorder—an instrument which charts the plane's speed, direction, altitude and encountered gusts of air—was found Monday.

Did lightning, as some eyewitnesses said, really strike the plane as it bucked an electrical storm near the end of its flight from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia? Or was it a bomb? Or air turbulence?

Federal investigators said it was too early to rule out any of these possibilities.

But they discarded one frequently used method—reconstruction of the shattered plane—as a step toward solution of the mystery.

"There is not enough to reconstruct," said Alan S. Boyd, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

DYNA-SOAR PROJECT MAY BE CANCELLED

By FRED HOFFMAN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's reported decision to cancel the Dyna-Soar manned space glider project deals a double blow to the Air Force's military-in-space ambitions.

It seemingly dooms what the Air Force has tagged as a critical series of experiments leading to eventual manned space warships.

But its broader implications could be more ominous to the Air Force.

Johnson long has been regarded as a believer in a strong military role in space and Air Force advocates thought they had reason to hope for a more sympathetic attitude from him than from President Kennedy.

CURB SPENDING

At the same time, the action underscores Johnson's apparent determination to hold down on defense spending, to keep it next year close to or below this year's level of between $50 billion and $51 billion.

Officially, the Defense Department and the White House refused to comment on a report by the trade publication Missile-Space Daily that the defense budget for the coming fiscal year would omit funds for the Dyna-Soar.

However, informants indicated that Johnson accepted the recommendation of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara who has exhibited grave doubts since last spring that the space glider project was worth what it would cost to complete it.

According to current figures, Congress has appropriated $549 million for the Dyna-Soar since 1959. Of this, about $180 million could be recaptured.

Over-all, the Air Force has estimated it would cost more than $800 million to complete the Dyna-Soar work by 1968, with the first of a planned 20 flights into orbit due in 1965.

RICH OFFER TO J. GIARDELLO

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Joey Giardello has been offered a $75,000 guarantee or 40 per cent of the gate to defend his newly won world middleweight title in Pittsburgh next April.

Promoter Archie Litman said he contracted Giardello in Philadelphia Monday. He quoted Giardello as saying the offer "is a lot of money. Let me think it over."

Litman said Giardello's foe would be the winner of the non-title bout in Pittsburgh Dec. 20 between Rubin (Hurricane) Carter, a ranking middleweight, and Welterweight king Emile Griffith.

Litman said he also has mentioned the offer to Giardello's advisor and trainer, Arnold Giovanetti, who said he would discuss the bid with Giardello.

A pretty garnish for pumpkin or squash pie: ring the cooled baked filling with whipped cream and scatter tiny jeweled cubes of candied fruit over the cream.

United States and concentrate production in Canada were outlined at a news conference by Guthrie; Bvers A. Burlingame, president, and Gordon L. Grundy, president of Studebaker of Canada Ltd.

LOSE AVANTI

They made these points: Production of the Avant Studebaker's sports car, will be encouraged to stay with Studebaker.

The price of Studebaker cars made in Canada and sold in the United States is expected to remain the same as current prices.

The officials said severance pay will be given to salaried employees. Union employees will be covered by contract provisions. These include supplemental unemployment benefits and some pension rights.

SCREEN CALLS TO JAIL CELL; RUBY 'GRUMPY'

DALLAS (AP)—Jack Ruby, the night club operator who killed accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, is described as "getting a little grumpy" in his jail cell.

"We've cut down on the number of phone calls he can make and told him he can't have some of the visitors he wanted," Sheriff Bill Decker said Monday. "He's not too happy about it."

The sheriff reported earlier that Ruby, 32, was a model prisoner.

Meanwhile, Decker was thinking ahead to Feb. 3, Ruby is due to appear in Criminal District Court that day for trial on a charge of murdering Oswald.

Decker will be responsible for the prisoner's courtroom safety, and the sheriff has received numerous suggestions.

BULLET PROOF CAPSULE

One proposal is for Ruby to sit inside a capsule of bullet-proof glass while in court.

There is a question in the minds of some lawyers, however, about how far Decker could go without risk that the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals would set aside a conviction.

Lawyers speculate the appeals court would rule that a capsule of bullet-proof glass or other elaborate arrangements could influence jurors as they weigh a verdict.

Defense counsel Tom Howard talked of seeking freedom on bond for Ruby after he shot Oswald in the City Hall basement Nov. 24. It appears now, however, that Ruby will stay in the county jail until his trial.

Associated Press Sports Writer
TOTTENHAM, England (AP)—The bed sheet banners waved wildly.

The cranking sounds of noisemakers cut through the shouts of the crowd of 70,000.

Jimmy Greaves had scored for the Tottenham Hotspurs.

Any fan of the New York Mets would have felt right at home, although the Hotspurs more closely resemble the New York Yankees in the field of English soccer.

YOUNGEST PLAYER

And Greaves, a small man with black wavy hair and the moves of a Bob Cousy, is the Babe Ruth of professional soccer, Britain's national game.

Only 23, he is the youngest player ever to score 100 goals in English League soccer, and very soon he will be the youngest ever to score 200. He makes about $20,000 a year, remarkable here where a player worth a quarter of a million dollars may only get $150 a week.

In his first season, Tottenham, a London working class suburb, won the title of the English League, then the National Cup and finally the Cup of Cups, a competition among all European national champions.

This season they are riding around the top of the Division I standings and excitement is naturally high along Tottenham High Street on Saturdays when the Spurs are scheduled to play in their big home stadium.

SATURDAY SOCCER DAY

Saturday is soccer day throughout the British Isles. Almost every community has its own professional team, with 11 operating in the London area alone.

There are 92 teams in the four English divisions, and two other leagues in Scotland. The top top English divisions have 22 teams each, and the other two 24 each.

At the end of the season, the two lowest teams in the league standings move down one division for the following season, and the two top teams move up one league.

This creates fan rooting interests at both ends of the standings, although in Tottenham the thoughts are only of titles, as long as Greaves is healthy. In a recent game against crosstown rival Fulham, there was only one explosion. Defensive-minded Fulham held the great Spurs off until there were only 10 minutes to go.

Then Greaves with a deft fake slipped away from the man who had been shadowing him, got a pass and smashed the ball into the corner of the goal for a 1-0 victory.

It was a great Saturday night in Tottenham.

Railroad Man Is Killed By Train

MARCUS HOOK, Pa. (AP)—Stephen Fedena, 49, Chester, was killed Monday night when he was hit by a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train here.

Police said Fedena, a freight crewman for the Reading Railroad, had just stepped from a southbound local train and was heading toward the business section of Marcus Hook when he was hit by the northbound train.

Railroad authorities said the engineer of the passenger train apparently did not realize someone was hit and kept going. The destination of the train was not immediately determined.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Four cars of a Pennsylvania Railroad freight train were derailed on the Rockville Bridge just north of here Monday night and two of them plunged into the Susquehanna River.

There were no injuries reported.

The railroad said one of the cars in the river was a tanker carrying corn syrup. The other car contained lumber. The other two cars that derailed but stayed on the bridge held pipe. Cause of the derailment was not immediately determined.

JAIL AIRMAN FOR MURDER

EVREUX, France (AP)—Defense attorneys studied possible appeals today for what they termed severe penalties ordered for two Pennsylvania soldiers convicted of unpremeditated murder charges.

The soldiers, both Negroes, were convicted Monday of the beating death of a white U.S. airman in a barracks brawl at the U.S. Air Force base here.

PFC Raymond C. Bost Jr., 22, Pittsburgh was sentenced to 15 years. PFC Robert Burrell, 20, Philadelphia was sentenced to 12 years.

The 10-member U.S. Army Court could have sentenced them to life imprisonment.

They were accused of striking Airman IC Robert Padgett, 23, of Woodlaw, Va., with broomsticks and a steel pipe last Sept. 6. Padgett died a few hours later in a base hospital.

Bost was also found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon on four white airmen and Burrell was convicted of the same charge on three white airmen.

The four days of testimony indicated racial insults punctuated the brawl, but defense attorney Capt. Norman H. Kirshman of New Milford, N.J., said he did not think it was a race riot. Instead he blamed drinking in the barracks and poor supervision for the outbreak of violence.

Both Senate And House Reapportionment Measures Go To Governor For Okay

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislative leaders set out today to complete action as quickly as possible on some $72 million in non-preferred appropriations now that controversial reapportionment is out of the way.

Final action on legislative redistricting came Monday night after nearly four weeks of debate and argument. Both the House and Senate measures were sent to Gov. Scranton.

The Senate was called back into session at 11 a.m. to give second reading to the appropriations bills for state-aided colleges, universities, hospitals and other institutions.

MIDNIGHT SESSION

Majority Leader James S. Berger, R-Potter, said he planned to call a midnight session to take a final vote, and send the money bills to the House.

Following this timetable, the House, idle until 4 p.m. Thursday, could give first reading Thursday, second reading Friday and a final vote Saturday.

Biggest chunk of the non-preferred appropriations is $25,090,000, earmarked for Pennsylvania State University. A total of 191 state-aided hospitals would share $15,148,920.

NARROW SQUEAK

Action on the reapportionment issue wound up with the House agreeing to Senate amendments in its bill involving Allegheny and Butler Counties.

But as a safeguard against possible errors, the two chambers decided to keep the special reapportionment session alive until at least Friday, while moving ahead with the other session on appropriations.

House Republicans had a narrow squeak with the Senate redistricting bill passing the measure only after Democrat Rep. Rep. H. J. Maxwell, Westmoreland County, bolted his party.

With Republicans Blaine Hocker, R-Dauphin, and Richard J. Green, R-Cambria, absent, and H. Jack Seltzer, R-

Lebanon, and Clarence F. Manbeck, R-Lebanon, opposed, the majority found itself two votes shy of the 106 needed to pass the measure.

2 PROTEST VOTES

Then Hocker came rushing into the chamber, to bring the vote 105. Maxwell switched seconds later. Seltzer and Manbeck voted against the bill in protest to the coupling of their county with Schuylkill County.

After the vote, Minority Leader Anthony J. Petrosky, also of Westmoreland County, stormed over to Maxwell and waving a finger in his face, shouted:

"Just remember that you've got to win in the primaries and I'll see that you are defeated if I have to come down there myself."

"I'M NO HERO"

Maxwell, ignoring the remark, walked over to the press gallery and told newsmen:

"I'm no hero, but this was just a silly waste of time. If (the Republicans) didn't have the votes today, they would get them tomorrow. The courts are going to decide this anyhow—you and I both know that."

Democrats claim both the House and Senate bills are unconstitutional.

The House bill, which reduces House seats from 210 to 209 and makes changes in a number of counties, passed the Senate 27-16 in strict party lines after about 75 minutes of debate. The two Republican amendments switched the 31st Ward of Pittsburgh from District Three to District Seven in Allegheny County and made Butler's Third Ward a part of District One in Butler County.

SENDS STATEMENT

Aides to Gov. Scranton said he probably would take a "little time" before signing the reapportionment bills.

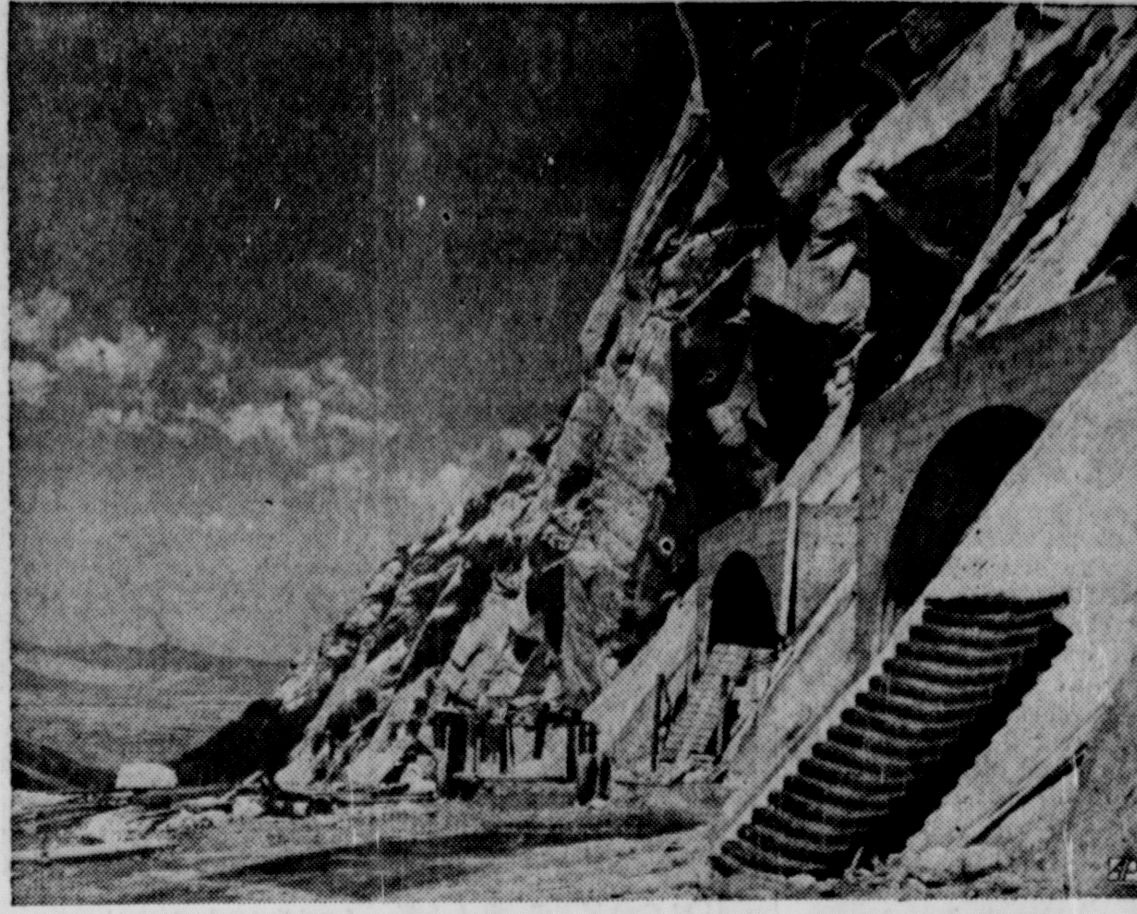

Preceding the start of the special session on appropriations, Gov. Scranton delivered a written statement to the lawmakers, urging immediate action.

He said five months of the fiscal year have passed and state-aided institutions "which depend on subsidies from the commonwealth to help pay for their operations have been denied the funds they so urgently need."

FAILED TO ACT

"Many have had to borrow money to keep going."

The legislature failed to act on the bills during the regular session which ended Aug. 1. Thirty-

REJECT APPEAL

OTTAWA (AP) — The Cuban military court that sentenced Ronald Patrick Lippert of Kitchener, Ont., to 30 years in prison has rejected his appeal, foreign Secretary Paul Martin told the House of Commons Monday.

Lippert and William Milne, of Montreal, were arrested in Havana Oct. 24 after landing in a small plane. They were accused of trying to smuggle in explosives. Milne was acquitted.

CIVIL RIGHTS DRIVE IN HOUSE INCHES AHEAD

By WILLIAM A. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A drive to force a House vote on civil rights legislation early next year inched ahead today after a whirlwind start Monday.

It was in the form of a petition to wrest control of the bill from foot-dragging Rules Committee and line it up for four days of debate and a showdown vote on the House floor, probably about Jan. 27.

To be successful, the petition must have the signatures of 218 House members. Not until then will the names be made public. Only while the House is sitting can the signatures be affixed.

SIGNINGS LAG

The petition was filed Monday by Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., whose Judiciary Committee approved the civil rights bill last Oct. 29 but hasn't been able to budge it out of the Rules Committee. Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., has announced that the rules group would start hearings sometime in January. Celler said that wasn't definite enough. He suspected that Smith, a veteran force of civil rights measures, might prolong the hearings indefinitely.

A rash of enthusiasm produced 115 signers in the first hour of the House session Monday as Democratic liberals and a handful of Republicans lined up with pens in hand. Then business fell off and by the end of the day 131 signatures were on the petition.

Stamp News

By SYD KRONISH
AP Newsfeatures

To commemorate the celebration of the Jewish New Year (5724), Israel has dedicated its annual festival series of stamps. The subject for this series, which was chosen from the Bible, is based on the book of Jonah. There are three stamps in this series. The scenes depicted from the story of Jonah are as follows: "The sun set upon the head of Jonah"; "There was a mighty tempest in the sea"; and "Jonah was in the belly of the fish." The inscriptions appear on the tabs beneath each stamp in Hebrew and French. The illustrations were designed by Jean David of Tel Aviv.

Also issued by Israel was a new stamp honoring the first Jewish settlers in Palestine. The date of issuance coincides with the date the settlers arrived in Palestine in 1882. The design features a hoe clearing a field of thistles.

The British colony of South Georgia has issued a new set of 15 new stamps featuring local animals, birds and fish. Each design also includes a portrait of Queen Elizabeth and a representation of the St. Edward's Crown. Some of the animals depicted are the reindeer, whale, penguin, seal and albatross.

FOREIGN AID SPENDING IS BEING SLOWED

By GEOFFREY GOULD
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has been running the foreign aid program on a $2.6-billion annual level in case it doesn't get more from Congress, it was learned on good authority today.

The current 1964 fiscal year started July 1, but Congress still has not appropriated funds for the program.

A compromise authorization bill, which sets a $3.6-billion ceiling, was approved by the House Monday and may come up for final action in the Senate today. The appropriations bill, which provides the actual money, is still in Senate and House committees.

PLAYING IT SAFE

In the absence of any appropriation, the foreign aid program has been financed for the past six months by resolutions of Congress continuing the spending at last year's level. That level was $3.9-billion.

However, an authoritative source said, the aid administrators have been playing it safe by spending only at a $2.6-billion level.

If it happens that Congress cuts back the program to that extent, this ensures a less painful adjustment. If they get more, they can step up the program during the second half of the fiscal year.

The expectations are that Congress will appropriate just about $3 billion for foreign aid which would be $600 million under the authorization and a whopping $1.5 billion below what the late President Kennedy requested.

✓ 1963 Box Score: FORD'S TOTAL PERFORMANCE TOUGHNESS DOMINATES THE COMPETITION WORLD!

Ford has chosen the most rugged testing program cars have ever faced . . . full-scale open competition on the rally and racing circuits of the world. This is the dramatic way to show that Fords have changed . . . and the sure way to be certain they keep on changing. Changed? Just look at the record:

STOCK CAR RACING: 2-to-1 margin for Ford Ford is king of NASCAR competition and Ford Motor Company has the NASCAR Achievement Award to prove it. In the '63 season, special Ford entries won every single race of 500 miles or longer, scored nearly twice as many points as any other make. 500-mile races are the ultimate test of inherent durability and dependability. In two other major stock car racing associations IMCA and MARC, Ford drivers have wrapped up the 1963 championships.	SPORTS CAR ROAD RACING: Ford V-8 power is the new king Here the Cobra with its special Fairlane engine emerged as the overwhelming leader in one short year. Cobra won the coveted Manufacturer's Trophy in SCCA Class A Production competition by so wide a margin no other cars—U.S. or foreign—were even in sight. And in the two major tests this fall, the Laguna Seca and Riverside races, the new King Cobras dusted off the top "unlimited" cars from all over the world.	RALLY COMPETITION: Manufacturer's Championship Products of Ford Motor Company and its world-wide affiliates won the 1963 Manufacturer's World Rally Championship. Ford's rally year began when two specially equipped Falcon V-8's started the automotive world in the brutal 2500-mile Monte Carlo Rally. Other special Falcon V-8's triumphed in Holland's famed Tulip Rally, and ran away with the Manufacturer's Team Prize in the 4000-mile Trans-Canada Rally.	INDIANAPOLIS: Ford ends an era Advanced Ford engineering smashed precedent in the classic Indianapolis "500." The first time out, a light alloy version of the Fairlane V-8 design in a Lotus chassis finished second. And the next time, in the Milwaukee "200" it ended the reign of the traditional "Indy" racing car by leading every foot of the way from start to finish.	PERFORMANCE & ECONOMY: New laurels for Ford The Mobil Economy Run underscored Falcon's year-long reputation for thrift—a Falcon scored first in Class B (medium-engined compacts). And the Pure Oil Performance Trials brought laurels to the big Fords, which walked off with overall wins in Classes I and II for total performance (economy, acceleration and braking).
---	--	---	--	---

✓ 1964 Result: TOTAL PERFORMANCE INSPIRES THE TOUGHEST, SMARTEST CARS FORD EVER BUILT!

Fords have changed—and that's the real reason behind Ford's racing successes. We're now making the longest lasting, best handling cars in our history. The things we've learned from the specially equipped cars we enter in open competition have helped make them that way.

The inherent qualities that make the victorious racing car—road-holding, braking, durability, precision control, resistance to vibration—also make a car safer, stronger, and smoother for highway use.

But prove it to yourself. Take the wheel of any new Ford. Five minutes on the road will show you the kind of total performance no one else can match.

Planned Holiday Snacks Provide Extra Nutrients

By MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Adams County Home Economist

Snacks are a popular fourth meal for Americans most any time, but the holiday season often inspires people to eat more snacks.

Plan snacks, don't let them just happen. Think of them as part of the day's total food requirements and provide snacks that contribute nutrients and not empty calories.

On frosty days, consider a hot, spicy fruit punch made from apple cider, cranberry juice or a blend of fruit juices.

Young and not-so-young family members may enjoy mugs of steaming hot tomato juice after school, work or skating. Egg nog variations, such as orange juice, milk and egg yolks are delicious and pack a nutritional wallop.

MRS. TUNISON

EXCITING DIPS

Dips of various cheeses, chopped or pureed meat or fish and other sea foods are exciting when served with raw vegetables or fruit sections. There raw fruits and vegetables are much better snack foods than potato chips or crackers. Calorie conscious family members and guests will thank you for using low energy foods in dips. One cup creamed cottage cheese has 240 calories, while one cup cream cheese has 880 calories.

Fruit breads are an excellent snack food. Since they need no spread the calorie count will be low for the nutritional values fruit breads provide.

HOLIDAY POPCORN BALLS

(12 large or 18 small)
4 quarts popped corn
1 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup fresh orange juice
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup light cream
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon grated orange peel

Combine popped corn with the chopped nuts. Set aside. Combine orange juice, sugar and cream in saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved. Increase heat and cook to 238 degrees on candy thermometer, or until a little mixture in cold water forms a soft ball. Remove from heat, add butter and orange peel. Slowly pour the cooked hot syrup over the popcorn and nuts, tossing until evenly coated. Shape into balls, using a small amount of butter on hands.

MOLDED CRANBERRY-ORANGE SALAD

(4 to 6 servings)
1 cup cranberry-juice cocktail
1 3-ounce package lemon, orange, raspberry or cherry-flavored gelatin
2 oranges, peeled, cut into bite-size pieces. (1 cup), reserve juice
1 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Salad greens

Heat cranberry-juice cocktail to boiling point; remove from heat and stir in gelatin until dissolved. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in orange pieces and juice, dairy sour cream and chopped nuts. Pour into a 1-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on salad greens.

CITRUS-CRANBERRY PUNCH

(12 punch-cup servings)
1 pint cranberry-juice cocktail, chilled
1/2 cup fresh lemon juice

1 28-ounce bottle ginger ale, chilled

1 orange, unpeeled, cut into cartwheels
1 pint vanilla ice cream or sherbert. Sprinkle of nutmeg, mace, ginger or cinnamon.

In punch bowl, combine cranberry-juice cocktail, lemon juice and ginger ale. Add vanilla ice cream or sherbert. Serve in small mugs or punch cups garnished with half orange cartwheels. Sprinkle with a spice for additional flavor.

FREEZE DRYING FOOD

Perishable foods that can be stored on the kitchen shelf for 2 years or longer with little deterioration or loss of quality is a reality today, according to U.S. Department of Agriculture marketing researchers.

Freeze-drying, the newest food processing method, allows foods like shrimp, chicken, mushroom, even hamburger, to be stored without refrigeration with little change in shape, color or taste. They look much like a dried out sponge and can be rehydrated by simply soaking in water.

Freeze-drying takes the moisture out of fresh foods by first freezing them, then drying them under vacuum. This drying process is known as sublimation, the removal of moisture from a product while that moisture is frozen. The resulting product has only two per cent of its original water.

In the past year the number of freeze-drying plants have doubled with many new products available. An experienced taste panel under the supervision of the U. S. Department of Agriculture rated many of these products superior to similar canned or frozen foods and many others just as good. Some freeze-dried foods are more acceptable in combination with other foods. Currently two soup companies use freeze-dried chicken and beef, onions and mushrooms in their dried soups. About 20 prepared dishes are on the market in sporting goods stores. Several other firms are developing these foods suitable for restaurant and institutional use.

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev unfolded plans Monday for a great leap forward in chemical production to increase farm harvests and provide a better life for the Soviet millions. He proposed to triple chemical industry output under a seven-year program.

Khrushchev told a full-dress meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee that never again will the Soviet Union export grain and let its people starve—as he said was one of the days of Stalin.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court affirmed Monday a decision upholding acquisition by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway of control of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

The decision was given by a special three-judge U.S. District Court in Detroit. It was appealed to the high tribunal by five unions.

Young Workman Is Buried Under Wall

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—David Marchesini, president of the Marchesini Demolition Co., and Joseph Chorba, 23, of Swoyersville spent part of Monday razing the Heft's Sawmill to make room for the proposed Francis Slocum State Park.

About 1 p.m. Marchesini left to attend to other business. He left Chorb working alone, trying to tear down an 18-foot wall.

When he returned later he found part of the wall had toppled over. Beneath the rubble he discovered Chorb's body.

State police said the young worker apparently died instantly.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said Sunday former President Eisenhower hasn't asked him to seek the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. But Lodge did not reject such a request in advance.

The New York Times reported that the former president had urged Lodge to return to the United States soon and make himself available for the Republican nomination.

Speaking of holidays, I can't wait until 1965. In that year we'll have six three-day holiday weekends.

You may not be able to hold on to a buck any better, but dollar bills are actually lasting longer. Among other reasons, the wider use of credit card and checking accounts has cut down on the use of paper currency.

Our quotable notables: "Inherited wealth is a big handicap to happiness. It is as certain death to ambition as cocaine is to morality."—William K. Vanderbilt.

LOW PAY FIELDS

Probably the only lower paying field than poetry is painting. It has been estimated that the average artist earns only about $11 a week, or less than a laborer gets a day.

There are more than two million laws in force in the United States. If you learned them at the rate of 10 a day it would take you nearly 550 years to be sure you were completely law-abiding. But by then probably two million more laws would have been passed.

SUCCESSFUL YEARS

It has been figured that more than 60 per cent of the world's top achievements have been accomplished by people between 45 and 65.

Worth remembering: "When things begin to blur, get stronger glasses — or weaker drinks."—Arnold H. Glasow.

In 630 B.C. in Nineveh, capital of Assyria, King Sennacherib had signs posted at intervals along one thoroughfare saying: "Royal road—let no man lessen it." Violators who parked their chariots were put to death.

It was Jonathan Swift who observed, "We have just enough religion to make us hate but not enough to make us love one another."

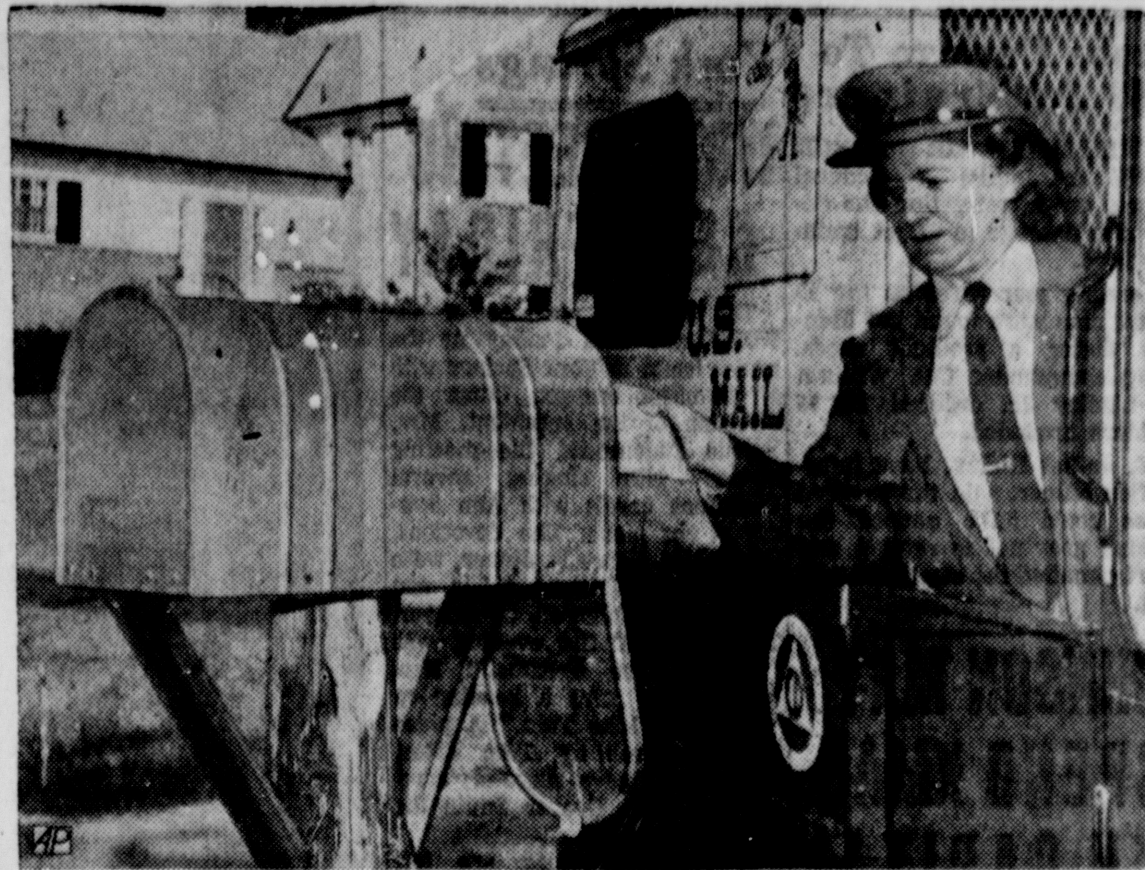

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson told Secretary of the Interior Udall Monday that he wants the Interior Department — not the White House — to set national oil policy.

It seemed apparent that Johnson, coming from a major oil-producing state, wanted to free himself in advance of any suggestion that his Texas ties were influencing national oil policy.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

WILL OVER WISP. The dictionary claims that a will-of-the-wisp is an ignis fatuus. Could be! But to most women, it's a hair.

good description of hair-wispy hair with a will of its own that you can't do a thing with.

Hair is pretty willful. The "do" we girls have today goes out of control tomorrow, and usually when we want to look perfection. But we are not as helpless as we think—and act — toward unruly locks. There are dozens of quick ways to get the upper hand. With regard to current hair styles, these control methods are tops:

• The answer to those short hairs at the nape that resist curl but need shaping takes the form of gauze bandage. Simply wet the strands with water or hairspray and swirl them into a wave with fingers or comb; then adjust the bandage across the nape and tie the ends atop your head. Once dry, every pesky end will lie smooth.

• When bangs go limp, barely dampen them with water or spray and comb them into line. Then, to hold the line, use a strip of transparent tape. Never fear, it peels off, once the hair is dry, sans pull or pain. The same trick also works well on a droopy cheek wave.

• Keep a supply of hair ornaments on hand. A jeweled clip, a velvet bow or a perky pony tucked in at a strategic spot can cover a multitude of tress distress. Of course the old standbys, such as polishes, cleansing tonics and touch-up crayons, are invaluable aids. If, that is, they are not left to idle in your dressing table drawer!

RULE YOUR WAVES

What's your hair problem? You'll find a way to overcome it in my 16-page booklet, RULE YOUR WAVES. Advice includes: Beauty treatments for oily, dry and normal hair; ways to manage unruly locks; how to add color and highlights; tips on cutting, permanents and styling, grooming tricks. FLOAT LODGE TRIAL BALLOON FOR 1964 RACE

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — What seemed to be a trial balloon labeled "Henry Cabot Lodge for president" floated the political skies today but without discernable effect thus far on political pros on the ground.

As one of them remarked, "Until the dust settles, we can hardly see any trial balloons, let alone gauge their effect."

The dust he referred to, of course, was stirred up by the sudden succession to the presidency of Lyndon B. Johnson. This has created real turmoil in the Republican ranks and has led to a lot of rethinking.

The big issue is this: does the effort to beat Johnson require the GOP to put up a candidate quite different from the sort who would have been needed to battle the late John F. Kennedy?

RESPECTS I KE

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is evidently one of those who has been rethinking. He is reported to have urged Lodge to make himself actively available for the Republican presidential nomination.

Lodge, 61, and now ambassador to South Viet Nam, said he was not running for anything but "naturally, anything from Gen. Eisenhower would be treated with great respect."

It was Lodge who went to Supreme Allied Headquarters in Europe in 1951 and twisted Eisenhower's arm to run for the Republican presidential nomination.

In 1952, Lodge was defeated for re-election to the Senate from Massachusetts by John F. Kennedy.

As of now, Lodge could not count many delegates to the 1964 convention in his corner. But things can change, as only Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona realizes too well.

At least until the Democratic presidential picture altered so suddenly, Goldwater was rated ahead for the GOP nomination.

Probe Damage To 60 Jet Trainers

WILLIAMS AIR FORCE BASE, Ariz. (AP) — Federal agents are investigating the deliberate damage to 61 jet trainers here.

Landing gear wires on the T-38 trainers were found cut Monday during a preflight check. Wing commander Col. William C. Lindley Jr. ordered all 75 trainers grounded.

Lt. James Ridley, base information officer, said the severed wires could have caused the landing gear not to retract and short circuited the electrical system.

JOHNSON MAY SPEND XMAS IN CAPITAL

By FRANCES LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The new First Family may spend Christmas at the White House, rather than back at the ranch, with Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson carrying out holiday plans that had been drawn up by Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

The nation's 30 days of mourning for John F. Kennedy ends Dec. 22, and then the black crepe will be removed from the executive mansion and President Johnson will light the giant Christmas tree in the park behind the White House.

DECORATE ROOMS

It is expected the stately rooms will be decorated as they have been in the past. And, as last year, a creche will be set up in the East Room, where the assassinated President's body lay in state little more than two weeks ago.

The creche had been planned by Mrs. Kennedy. The White House announced Monday that Mrs. Johnson will keep a date of the former first lady and will distribute toys to the young patients at D.C. General Hospital.

After the Christmas holiday, the Johnsons are scheduled to entertain West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard at the LBJ Ranch Dec. 28 and 29.

FIRE ON PLANE

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A United Airlines plane with nine persons aboard was forced to return here Monday shortly after takeoff because of a fire in the cockpit.

The fire had burned itself out by the time the plane landed at Rochester-Monroe County Airport. The craft was bound for Williamsport, Pa.

OTHER RESULTS

In some others, Oklahoma outscored Illinois 105-104, Texas Tech beat Nebraska 76-60, Alabama got by Florida State 62-53 and Baylor took Southwest Texas 71-62.

Key games tonight include Detroit at top-ranked Chicago Loyola, second-ranked New York University at Northwestern and Duquesne at fifth-ranked Wichita.

York Springs WCTU MEETING HELD FRIDAY

The monthly meeting of the WCTU was held Friday at the parish house in York Springs with 17 members present. Under the direction of the president, Mrs. Bennie Fadenrecht, the meeting opened with singing several Christmas carols with Ann Sowers at the piano. The devotions, led by Mrs. Grace E. Stoner, were taken from Matthew 21:12 and 1 Cor. 13:13 followed by prayer. The theme of the evening was "Love Is The Greatest." Mrs. Merle Miller gave a reading on "A Brother Like That." A piano solo was given by Alice Hikes. Mrs. Keefe gave secretary's report and Mrs. Grover Smith the treasurer's report.

In December dues are forwarded to the state after making a membership drive for the last month. The following people joined the York Springs local during the last month: Mrs. Ruth Smith Hall, Prince Frederick, Md.; Mrs. Janet Herschberger, Gardners R. 1; Miss Martha Hikes, Shippensburg State College; Mrs. Ethel Martin, York Springs R. 2; Mrs. Donald Mansberger, Gardners R. 1; Mrs. Naomi Riddle, Abbottstown R. 2; Mrs. Doris Tosten, Gardners R. 1; Mrs. Clarence Blocher, Gardners R. 1, for a total of 12 new members for 1963, making a total of 69 members for the local. Other prospective members may contact any member or the treasurer, Mrs. Grover Smith, Gardners R. 1.

At this meeting the members brought articles such as candy, books, stamps, Christmas cards, stationery, soap and Bibles which will be delivered to the Veterans Hospital at Mt. Alto on Sunday.

Mrs. Bennie Fadenrecht gave a talk on the highlights from the state convention at Butler.

Ann Sowers and Alice Hikes, both YTC members with leader, Mrs. Earl Fetrow, and Mrs. Ellen Blocher of LTL took the children Christmas caroling. During their meeting they made sleighs which held pine branches.

The special county Christmas meeting will be held December 27 at 6 p.m. at the Hampton fire hall with a covered dish supper. The speaker will be Rev. O. B. Poulson from Camp Hill and the subject "Dare the High Road."

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A heart attack was fatal to Edward Lintner, 48, of Pittsburgh who collapsed Monday while hunting in West Fallowfield Twp.

Clad in tights and a black sweater, shapely Mrs. Claire Shewring assumes a pose for photographer Michael Webb as they help to illustrate theme of a sermon by Rev. Vernon Mitchell, in pulpit, at St. Philip's Anglican Church in Norbury, England. Mitchell's sermon attacked the exploitation of sex in advertising. The vicar, a former advertising executive, told the congregation he wants his church to become a stage shared by actors and congregation with himself as narrator. "Our Lord himself," he said, "used illustration in parables and other ways." (AP Wirephoto)

KENTUCKY HAS NOTCHED ITS FOURTH WIN

By BOB GREEN

Question: When does a college basketball team have to rebound from a head-hanging season in which it compiles only a 16-9 record?

Answer: When it comes from the bluegrass country of Kentucky and is coached by Adolph Rupp.

Rupp last season suffered through his worst year since taking over Kentucky in 1931.

UNBEATEN SO FAR

Indications are, however, that Rupp will notch the 700th victory of his career somewhere through the Southeastern Conference schedule this season and may have something going reminiscent of his teams that captured four national championships.

The Wildcats were ranked No. 9 in the pre-season Associated Press poll more on Rupp's reputation than any other single factor, but they're beginning to make the selection look good.

They ripped off victory No. 4 in an unbeaten season with a 100-80 win over North Carolina Monday and moved Rupp's lifetime record to 688-134.

Another old master, Hank Iba of Oklahoma State, is making his weight felt in the Big Eight. His Cowboys, unranked but highly considered, remained unbeaten with a 74-65 decision over Arkansas.

Iowa also remained unbeaten, but had to survive a foul-filled fray and a fist-fight to score a two-point victory over St. Louis. Dave Roach tossed in 32 points in the 79-77 decision that was marked by 69 personal fouls. Seven players went out on personals.

In some of the other major games, Rice bombed Tulane 90-62, Utah humbled Pacific 90-72, defending SEC champ Mississippi State came from behind for a 67-52 decision over Delta State, Texas remained unbeaten with a 70-65 victory over LSU, Texas Christian outlasted Houston 65-59 in overtime, Wake Forest had a tough time edging Purdue 77-72; Tennessee just got by Tennessee State 48-47 and 7-foot Roger Suttner scored 29 points in Kansas State's 93-84 victory over Indiana.

In some others, Oklahoma outscored Illinois 105-104, Texas Tech beat Nebraska 76-60, Alabama got by Florida State 62-53 and Baylor took Southwest Texas 71-62.

Key games tonight include Detroit at top-ranked Chicago Loyola, second-ranked New York University at Northwestern and Duquesne at fifth-ranked Wichita.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — Motorcycles will be barred from the New Jersey Turnpike and trucks and buses will be prohibited from using the inside, or fast, lane effective Jan. 1, despite vehement protests.

Turnpike authority commissioners upheld the new regulations following a five-hour public hearing Monday.

Gave Tranquilizer Pills; Fined $1,000

COLLINGSWOOD, N.J. (AP)

A man and woman have been fined $1,000 each and given six-month suspended sentences for handing out tranquilizer pills as "trick or treat" candy to children last Halloween.

They are Mrs. Edna McCrory, 39, a Philadelphia divorcee, and Frederick E. Waterhouse, 60, of Collingswood.

Mrs. McCrory stated she gave the pills to the children by mistake.

There was no indication any children took the pills.

BOMB KILLS INDIAN WOMAN INJURES 39

ADEN (AP) — A bomb flung from an airport balcony at a British high commissioner's party killed an Indian woman today and injured 39 other persons, including the commissioner and three aides.

Sir Kennedy Trevaskis, the high commissioner, suffered a minor hand injury. But George Henderson, deputy assistant commissioner, and Secretary Jim Foster of the Information Ministry were hit in the shoulder.

Also injured were two officials of the Federation of South Arabia. One of them, Information Minister Sultan Ahmed Bin Abdulla Fadhil, was listed as seriously injured.

The official party of British and Arab officials were preparing to leave for London and talks on the constitution of this aggregate of sheikdoms and emirates, a British protectorate along the southern coast of the Arabian Peninsula. Talks were scheduled with Colonial Secretary Duncan Sandys.

FIND NO CLUE

There was no clue to the identity of the bomb thrower. The revolutionary regime of neighboring Yemen claims territory along the ill-defined border and strongly opposed creation of the federation. But whether a Yemeni had a hand in the bombing was not known immediately. A number of spectators who were on the balcony were questioned.

As police reconstructed the incident, the bomb came flying from the spectator's balcony of an airport building and landed in a flower bed near the high commissioner's party.

60-Year-Old Man Seeks Santa Wife

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — An Oklahoma City man is ready to end his bachelor status—if Santa Claus can supply the right name.

The Oklahoma City Times promised to fulfill the fondest wishes of the best three letter-writers in a Christmas contest.

The marriage-ready bachelor who signed his real name but asked that the pen name J. Adams be used at present, said he wants a list of marriageable women.

"I must meet more women fast," he told Santa. "One at a time is too slow. At 60 there is not much time left."

POPE SPEAKS IN BETHLEHEM ON JANUARY 6

By EUGENE LEVIN

VATICAN CITY (AP) — An informed source said today Pope Paul VI, after visiting both Israel and Jordan on his Holy Land pilgrimage, will deliver a major speech in Bethlehem Jan. 6 appealing to all mankind for peace and unity.

The source said the Pope would visit both Israel and Jordan, crossing the armed border between them twice. The source said this was the Pope's tentative program for the unprecedented pilgrimage.

LEAVES JAN. 4

Jan. 4—Leaves Rome's Leonardo da Vinci Airport about 6 a.m. (midnight EST Jan. 3), flying nonstop to Amman and arriving about 10 or 10:30 (3:30 a.m. EST). Drives to Jerusalem to celebrate Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, tours Christian shrines in Old Jerusalem and spend the night at the apostolic delegation in Jerusalem.

Jan. 5—Drives into Israel in the morning and tours Biblical sites there, including Nazareth, Tiberias and the Sea of Galilee. Returns to Jordan in the evening to spend the second night at the apostolic delegation in Jerusalem.

PONTIFICAL MASS

Jan. 6—Goes to Bethlehem in the morning, celebrates a pontifical Mass in the Church of the Nativity and then makes a speech. Drives to Amman for the flight back to Rome, where he is due about 5:30 p.m. (11:30 a.m. EST).

The visit to Bethlehem will come on the Feast of the Epiphany which commemorates the visit of the three Wise Men to the infant Jesus.

The source said the Pope might make other speeches, but that the one in Bethlehem will be the most important.

The source said it would be more than an appeal for Christian unity. He said it would be a general plea for religious and political harmony made in such a way that it would be addressed to all mankind.

Some good cooks like to use a moderate (350 degrees) oven for roasting ribs of beef rather than the slow (325 degrees) temperature commonly recommended nowadays.

CAMDEN BAR IS WRECKED BY GAS BLAST

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — An explosion, believed caused when a gas line was broken, wrecked a bar and injured four persons Monday.

Debris from Pete's Bar on the Black Horse Pike in nearby Runnemede was scattered over an 80 foot area.

Robert Farrell, 60, of Runnemede, a patron in the bar, suffered a broken back.

The owner of the bar, Peter Skiba, 49, and his wife Helena 49, who both suffered bruises, were treated and released. John Keenan, 28, of Maple Shade, a workman, suffered a puncture wound of the right knee. He was released after treatment.

DOWNED BY BLAST

Charles Shafer, 22, of Paulsboro, N.J., who was digging a water line, said his power shovel hit a gas line. He said he heard a hissing sound and smelled gas.

He said he ran to the bar, told Mrs. Skiba to notify the gas company, then warned those inside to get out. He said the patrons hesitated. As he started to walk out, he said, he was knocked over by the explosion.
